

2018 Summer Music Program of the Archeparchy of Pittsburgh

Summer Cantor School

This year, the Byzantine Catholic Archeparchy of Pittsburgh will hold its second annual summer music program for cantors. The three day workshop will take place on July 25-27 at Ss. Cyril and Methodius Byzantine Catholic Seminary in Pittsburgh, PA.

The program is open to all current cantors and choir directors in the Byzantine Catholic Church, as well as any MCI student who has completed the Introduction to Church Singing class online. At the workshop, cantors will have an opportunity to:

- Extend their knowledge of the church's liturgy and chant
- Practice and improve church singing and leadership skills
- Learn techniques for renewing liturgical music in the parish and increasing participation in church singing

In addition to classroom instruction, students will receive individualized vocal coaching and the opportunity to lead services, with credit toward cantor certification.

The program is directed by Deacon Jeffrey Mierzejewski, with additional instructors from the Archeparchy of Pittsburgh. Our goal is to enable cantors to develop and perfect their craft, and take home tools and expertise to benefit their parishes and eparchies.

A registration fee of $200, due by July 15, covers all materials, meals, and instruction for the three day course. Lodging at the seminary is available for an additional $100, to be paid at registration.

The course is limited to 24 students, so please register as soon as possible to reserve a spot.
