

Propers for the Liturgy of the Presanctified Gifts
Friday in the Third Week of the Great Fast
March 9, 2012

The forty holy martyrs of Sebaste in Armenia. They were comrades, not in blood, but in faith and obedience to the will of their heavenly Father. At the time of the emperor Licinius, after binding and savage tortures, they were ordered to pass the night naked at the coldest time of winter in a swamp in the open air. They consummated their martyrdom by the breaking of their legs at crucifixion. (320)

O Christ our God, the Mar - tyrs con - sid - ered the lake to be as par - a - dise, and win - ter as the heat of day. Thoughts of the ty - rant's threats did not fright - en them. Brave - ly they did not fear the in - crease of tor - tures, Cantor: Strong is the love of the Lord for us; he is faith - ful for - ev - er.

①

We have borne the burden of the winter and the bitter-ness of the cold:

our feet are dyed in our own blood! O God, lead us to your e-ter - nal of Jus - tice dawned; in - stead of Mo - ses, Christ, the sal - va - tion of our souls.

The service continues with the Hymn of the Evening, "O Joyful Light," on page 22.
