The holy martyr Anthimus, bishop of Nicomedia
Our venerable father Theoctist

The holy martyr Anthimus, bishop of Nicomedia, in Bithynia, and his companions, martyrs in the persecution of Diocletian the emperor. In fact, a whole crowd followed him as he received the glory of martyrdom by beheading for the sake of his confession of Christ. Some of his companions a judge ordered beheaded by the sword, some burned up by the fire, and finally some were put in boats and drowned at sea. (303)

Our venerable father Theoctist, companion of St. Euthymius the Great, was hegumen of the monastery six miles from Jerusalem on the road to Jericho. He was in all things a disciple of Euthymius, governing the monastery until his ninetieth year. (431)
