The Order of Sunday Evening Vespers in the Great Fast

Priest: Blessed is our God, always, now and ever and forever.

Response:

Psalm tone:

A - men. * -

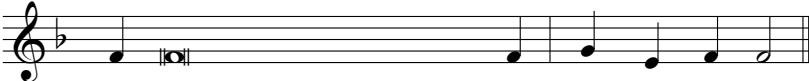

Glory to you, our God,
glory to you.

Heavenly King, Comforter, Spirit of Truth, everywhere present and filling all things,
Treasury of Blessings and Giver of Life,
come and dwell within us,
cleanse us from all stain,
and save our souls, O gracious One.

Holy God, Holy and Mighty, Holy and Immortal, have mercy on us. (3 times)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,
now and ever and forever. Amen.

Most Holy Trinity, have mercy on us;
Lord, cleanse us of our sins;
Master, forgive our transgressions;
Holy One, come to us and heal our infirmities for your name's sake.

Lord, have mercy. Lord have mer-cy. Lord have mer-cy.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,
now and ever and forever. Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us,
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Priest: For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Response:
A - men.

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mer - cy. Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mer - cy. (sung twice)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,
now and ever and forever. Amen.

Call to Worship

Each time with a reverence:

Come, let us worship our King and God. Come, let us worship Christ, our King and God.

Come, let us worship and bow before the only Lord Jesus Christ, the King and our God.

Psalm 103

Bless the Lord, O my soul!
Lord my God, how great you are,
clothed in majesty and glory,
wrapped in light as in a robe.

You stretch out the heavens like a tent.
Above the rains you build your dwelling.
You make the clouds your chariot,
you walk on the wings of the wind;

you make your angels spirits
and your ministers a flaming fire.
You founded the earth on its base,
to stand firm from age to age.

You wrapped it with the ocean like a cloak:
the waters stood higher than the mountains.
At your threat they took to flight;
at the voice of your thunder they fled.

They rose over the mountains and flowed down to the place which you had appointed.
You set limits they might not pass
lest they return to cover the earth.

You make springs gush forth in the valleys;
they flow in between the hills.
They give drink to all the beasts of the field;
the wild asses quench their thirst.

On their banks dwell the birds of heaven;
from the branches they sing their song.
From your dwelling they water the hills;
earth drinks its fill of your gift.

You make the grass grow for the cattle and the plants to serve man's needs, that he may bring forth bread from the earth and wine to cheer man's heart;

oil, to make his face shine and bread to strengthen man's heart.

The trees of the Lord drink their fill,
the cedars he planted on Lebanon;

there the birds build their nests;
on the treetop the stork has her home.
The goats find a home on the mountains and rabbits hide in the rocks.

You made the moon to mark the months;
the sun knows the time for its setting.
When you spread the darkness it is night
and all the beasts of the forest creep forth.

The young lions roar for their prey and ask their food from God.
At the rising of the sun they steal away and go to rest in their dens.

Man goes out to his work,
to labor till evening falls.
How many are your works, O Lord!
In wisdom you have made them all.
The earth is full of your riches.

There is the sea, vast and wide,
with its moving swarms past counting,
living things great and small.
The ships are moving there,
and the monsters you made to play with.

All of these look to you
to give them their food in due season.
You give it, they gather it up;
you open your hand, they have their fill.

You hide your face, they are dismayed;
you take back your spirit, they die,
returning to the dust from which they came.

Litany of Peace

Deacon: In peace, let us pray to the Lord.

Response:
1. Lord, have mer - cy.

Deacon: Commemorating our most holy, most pure, most blessed and glorious Lady, the Theotokos and ever-Virgin Mary with all the saints, let us commit ourselves and one another and our whole life to Christ our God.

Response:
To you, O Lord.

The faithful STAND.

Priest: Evening, morning, and at noon we praise you, we bless you, we thank you, and we pray to you, Master of All and loving Lord. Let our prayer rise like incense before you and do not let our hearts be turned to evil words or thoughts, but deliver us from all that might ensnare our souls. For to you, Lord, O Lord, our eyes are turned and in you we hope; let us not be put to shame, O our God. For to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, is due all glory, honor, and worship now and ever and forever.

Response:
A - men.

The faithful STAND while the Lamp-lighting Psalms and stichera are sung, and the deacon (or the priest, if there is no deacon) performs the great incensation of the church. The faithful may SIT when the incensation is complete.

Please turn to the insert for the Lamp-lighting psalms and the hymnody proper to this Sunday.

Deacon: Wisdom! Be attentive!

The clergy and servers enter the sanctuary as “O Joyful Light” is sung. The sanctuary and the faithful are incensed.

Hymn of the Evening

O Joy - ful Light of the ho - ly glo - ry of the Fa - ther Im - mor - tal, the hea - ven - ly, ho - ly, bles - sed One, O Je - sus Christ: Now that we have reached the set - ting of the sun, and see the eve - ning light, we sing to God, Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Spir - it. It is fit - ting at all times to raise a song of praise in meas - ured mel - o - dy to you, O Son of God, the Giv - er of Life. There - fore, the un - i - verse sings your glo - ry.

Evening Prokeimenon

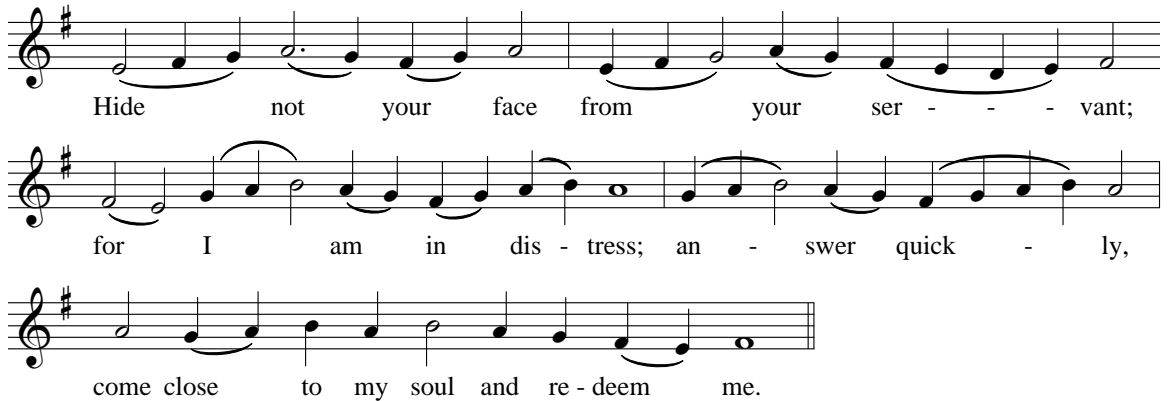

Deacon: Let us be attentive!

Priest: Peace be to all!

Deacon: Wisdom! Be attentive!

The verses of the Prokeimenon are sung either by the Deacon or by the Priest.

Prokeimenon for Cheesefare (Forgiveness) Sunday, and the Second and Fourth Sundays of the Great Fast:

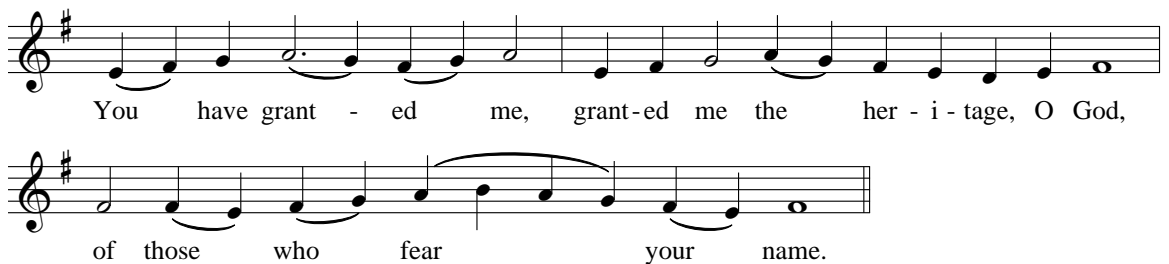

Hide not your face from your ser - - - vant;
for I am in dis - tress; an - swer quick - ly,
come close to my soul and re - deem me.

Verse: Let your saving help, O God, protect me.

Verse: See, you lowly ones, and be glad.

Verse: You who seek God, may your hearts be merry.

Prokeimenon for the First, Third, and Fifth Sundays of the Great Fast:

You have grant - ed me, grant-ed me the her - i - tage, O God,
of those who fear your name.

Verse: From the end of the earth I call; my heart is faint.

Verse: I will hide in the shelter of your wings.

Verse: I will always praise your name.

At this point in the service, we have finished our Sunday observance and return to using the Lenten tones and responses.

Hymn of Glorification

Blessed are you, O Lord, the God of our fäthers, and praiseworthy and glorious is your name forever. Ämen
May your mercy, O Lord, be upön us because we have placed our hope in you.

Blessed are you, O Lord, (reverence) teach me your commändments.

Blessed are you, O Mäster, (reverence) make me understand your commändments.

Blessed are you, O Holy One, (reverence) enlighten me with your commändments.

O Lord, your mercy is forëver;
despise not the work of your hands.
To you is due praise, to you is due a hymn;
to you is glory due.
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
now and ever and forever. Amen.

The faithful SIT.

Litany of Supplication

Deacon: Let us complete our evening prayer to the Lord

Deacon: Protect us, save us, have mercy on us, and preserve us, O God, by your grace.

Response:
Lord, have mer - cy.

Deacon: That this whole evening be perfect, holy, peaceful, and without sin, let us beseech the Lord.

Response:
3. Grant this, O Lord.

Deacon: For an angel of peace, a faithful guide and guardian of our souls and bodies, let us beseech the Lord.

Response:
4. Grant this, O Lord.

Deacon: For the pardon and remission of our sins and offenses, let us beseech the Lord.

Response: Grant this, O Lord. (3)

Deacon: For what is good and beneficial to our souls and for peace in the world, let us beseech the Lord.

Response: Grant this, O Lord (4)

Deacon: That we spend the rest of our life in peace and repentance, let us beseech the Lord.

Response: Grant this, O Lord. (3)

Deacon: For a Christian, painless, unashamed, peaceful end of our life, and for a good account before the fearsome judgement seat of Christ, let us beseech the Lord.

Response: Grant this, O Lord. (4)

Deacon: Commemorating our most holy, most pure, most blessed and glorious Lady, the Theotokos and ever-Virgin Mary with all the saints, let us commit ourselves and one another, and our whole life to Christ our God.

Response: Musical notation for the response 'To you, O Lord.' The melody is written on a single staff in G major (one sharp). The notes are: G4 (quarter), A4 (quarter), B4 (quarter), C5 (quarter), B4 (quarter), A4 (quarter), G4 (quarter). The lyrics 'To you, O Lord.' are written below the notes.

The faithful STAND.

Priest: Great and most high God, you alone possess immortality and dwell in unapproachable light. You made all creation with wisdom, dividing light from darkness, establishing the sun to rule the day and the moon and stars to rule the night. You have allowed us sinners to approach your presence with thanksgiving in this present hour and to offer you evening praise. O Lord, Lover of us all, make our prayer ascend to you like incense and accept it as a sweet fragrance. Grant that we may spend the present evening and the coming night in peace; clothe us with the armor of light; deliver us from the fears of the night and from everything that lurks about in darkness. Grant that the sleep you have given us to refresh our fatigue may be free from all illusions of the devil. Yes, O Master of All, Giver of good things, let us feel contrition as we lie on our beds remembering your name throughout the night. Enlightened by meditation on your commands, may we rise with gladdened soul to give glory to your goodness, offering prayers and supplications to your compassion for our sins and those of all your people. Visit us with mercy through the intercession of the holy Theotokos.

For you, O God, are good and love us all, and we glorify you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Response: Musical notation for the response 'A - - - - men.' The melody is written on a single staff in G major (one sharp). The notes are: G4 (quarter), A4 (quarter), B4 (quarter), C5 (quarter), B4 (quarter), A4 (quarter), G4 (quarter). The lyrics 'A - - - - men.' are written below the notes.

Priest: Peace be to all!

Response: Musical notation for the response 'And to your spir - it.' The melody is written on a single staff in G major (one sharp). The notes are: G4 (quarter), A4 (quarter), B4 (quarter), C5 (quarter), B4 (quarter), A4 (quarter), G4 (quarter). The lyrics 'And to your spir - it.' are written below the notes.

Deacon: Bow your heads to the Lord!

Response:
To you, O Lord.

Priest: Lord our God, you bowed the heavens and came down for the salvation of the human race. Look upon your servants and upon your inheritance, for they have bowed their heads and bent their necks to you, the awesome Judge who love mankind. They do not expect human help, but await your mercy and long for your salvation. Protect them at all times, this evening and tonight, from every enemy, from all the devil’s assaults, from vain thoughts and evil imaginings. May the might of your kingdom be blessed and glorified, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Response:
A - - - - men.

Aposticha

Please turn to the insert for the Aposticha hymns proper to this Sunday.

Prayer of St. Simeon

Now you may dis-miss your ser-vant, O Lord, in peace ac-cord-ing to your word.

for my eyes have seen your *salv*ation which you have prepared before the face of all pöoples, a light for revelation to the Gëntiles,
and the glory of your people Ísrael.

Trisagion Prayers

Holy God, Holy and Mighty, Holy and Immortal, have mercy öñ us. (3 times)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,
now and ever and forever. Amen.

Most Holy Trinity, have mercy on us;
Lord, cleanse us of our sins;
Master, forgive our transgressions,
Holy One, come to us and heal our infirmities for your näme's sake.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, *
now and ever and forever. Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us,
and lead us not into temptation, *
but deliver us from evil.

Priest: For thine is the kingdom and the power and glory,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Dismissal for Fasts

After the Prayer of St. Simeon and the Trisagion Prayers, the following Troparia are sung in Tone 4:

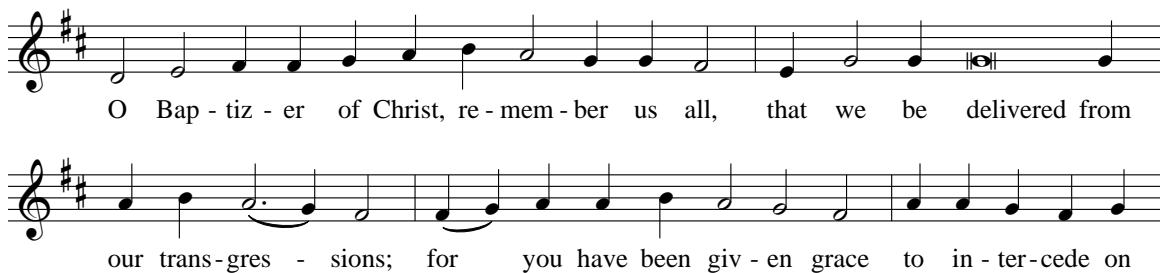

Re-joyce, O Vir-gin The-o-to - kos! Mar-y full of grace, the Lord is with you! Bless-ed are you a-mong wo - men, and bless-ed is the fruit of your womb. For you gave birth to Christ, the Sav-ior and Re-deem-er

Prostration
of our souls.

Cantor: Glory...

O Bap-tiz-er of Christ, re-mem-ber us all, that we be delivered from our trans-gres - sions; for you have been giv - en grace to in - ter-cede on

Prostration
our be - half.

Cantor: Now and ever and forever. Amen.

Pray for us, O ho - ly apos - tles and all you saints, that we be delivered from dan - ger and af - flic - tion, for we have you as our fervent interces - sors be - fore the Sav - ior.

Prostration

Then we sing the following hymn to the Mother of God:

(alternate melody on next page)

melody: Pod tvoju milost' (1)

Be - neath your com - pas - sion we take ref - - - uge, O Vir - gin

The - o - to - kos. De - spise not our pray'rs, our pray'rs in our need, but de - liv - er us from dan - gers, for you a - lone are pure, for you a - lone are pure, for you a - lone are pure and bless - ed.

or:

melody: Pod tvoju milost' (2)

Be - neath your com-pas-sion we take ref - uge, O Vir-gin The-o - to - kos.

De - spise not our pray'rs in our need, but de - liv - er us from dan - gers, for you a - lone are pure and bless - ed.

The following is sung four times:

Lord, have mer - cy. Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mer - cy. Lord, have mer - cy. Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mer-cy. Lord, have mer - cy.

Then we ask for the celebrant's blessing:

Give the bles - sing.

The Prayer of St. Ephrem

All: Lord and Master of my life, spare me from the spirit of indifference, despair,
lust for power, and idle chatter. (Prostration)
 Instead, bestow on me, your servant,
 the spirit of integrity, humility,
 patience, and love. (Prostration)
Yes, O Lord and King,
let me see my own sins
and not judge my brothers and sisters;
for you are blessed forever and ever. Amen. (Prostration)

Then, with a simple bow, the following is repeated four times:

O God, be merciful to me, a sinner.
O God, cleanse me of my sins and have mercy on me.
O Lord, forgive me, for I have sinned without number.

*Once more, the Prayer of St. Ephrem is recited, without the usual prostrations.
One prostration is made at the conclusion of the prayer.*

Holy God, Holy and Mighty, Holy and Immortal, have mercy òn us. (3 times, each with a prostration)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,
 now and ever and forever. Amen.

Most Holy Trinity, have mercy on us;
Lord, cleanse us of our sins;
Master, forgive our transgressions,
 Holy One, come to us and heal our infirmities for your nàme's sake.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,
 now and ever and forever. Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
 Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread,
 and forgive us our trespasses
 as we forgive those who trespass against us,
 and lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.

Priest: For thine is the kingdom and the power and glory,
 Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Response:

Psalm 33

The verses of this psalm are alternated between cantor and faithful.

I will bless the Lord at all times,
his praise always on my lips;
in the Lord my soul shall make its boast.
The humble shall hear and be glad.

Glorify the Lord with me.
Together let us praise his name.
I sought the Lord and he answered me;
from all my terrors he set me free.

Look towards him and be radiant;
let your faces not be abashed.
This poor man called, the Lord heard him
and rescued him from all his distress.

The angel of the Lord is encamped,
around those who revere him, to rescue them.
Taste and see that the Lord is good.
He is happy who seeks refuge in him.

Revere the Lord, you his saints.
They lack nothing, those who revere him.
Strong lions suffer want and go hungry
but those who seek the Lord lack no blessing.

Come, children, and hear me that I may teach you the fear of the Lord.
Who is he who longs for life
and many days, to enjoy his prosperity?

Then keep your tongue from evil
and your lips from speaking deceit.
Turn aside from evil and do good;
seek and strive after peace.

The Lord turns his face against the wicked to destroy their remembrance from the earth.
The Lord turns his eyes to the just and his ears to their appeal.

They call and the Lord hears and rescues them in all their distress.

The Lord is close to the broken-hearted;
those whose spirit is crushed he will save.

Many are the trials of the just man
but from them all the Lord will rescue him.

He will keep guard over all his bones,
not one of his bones shall be broken.

Evil brings death to the wicked;
those who hate the good are doomed.

The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants.
Those who hide in him shall not be condemned.

Deacon: Wisdom!

Response: It is truly proper to glorify you, O Theotökos,
the ever-blessed, immaculate, and the Mother of our God.
More honorable than the Cherubim,
and beyond compare more glorious than the Seraphim, who, a virgin, gave birth to God the Word;
you, truly the Theotokos, we magnify!

Priest: Glory to you, O Christ God, our hope, glory to you.

Response: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,
now and ever and forever. Amen.

Lord, have mer - cy. Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mer - cy. Give the bles - sing.

Priest: May Christ our true God have mercy on us and save us through the prayers of his most pure Mother, through the protection of the honorable, heavenly, bodiless powers; through the prayers of the holy (Name), (to whom this church is dedicated,) and (Name), (whose feast we celebrate today) and through the prayers of all the saints; for he is gracious and loves us all.

Response:

On Cheesefare or Forgiveness Sunday, a service of mutual forgiveness may be held; see the last page of this booklet.

By long-standing custom, the following hymn is sung at the conclusion of weekday services during the Great Fast:

Having suffered (Preterpivj)

Prayers of Light

To be said quietly by the celebrant during the chanting of the Lamp-lighting Psalms.

1. Lord, compassionate and merciful, long-suffering and rich in mercy, give ear to my prayer and attend to the sound of my plea. Show us a sign of your favor; guide us in your way so that we may walk in your truth. Gladden our hearts that we may fear your holy name, for you are great and do marvelous deeds. You alone are God, and among the gods there is none like you, O Lord. Powerful in mercy and gracious in strength, you help, comfort, and save all those who hope in your holy name. For to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, is due all glory, honor, and worship, now and ever and forever. Amen.

2. Lord, do not rebuke us in your anger, nor punish us in your wrath. Deal with us according to your kindness, O Physician and Healer of our souls. Guide us to the harbor of your will; enlighten the eyes of our minds that we may know your truth. Grant that we may spend what remains of this day and the rest of our life peacefully and sinlessly through the intercession of the holy Theotokos and of all the saints. For yours is the might; and yours are the kingdom and the power and the glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever. Amen.

3. Lord our God, remember us your sinful and useless servants as we call upon your holy and sublime name, and do not put us to shame for hoping in your mercy. Grant us instead, O Lord, all our petitions which lead to salvation, and make us worthy to love and to fear you with all our hearts and to do your will in everything. For you are a good and loving God, and we give glory to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever. Amen.

4. You are praised by the holy powers with hymns that are never silent and in doxologies that never cease. Fill our mouth with your praise that we may ascribe majesty to your holy name. Through the intercession of the holy Theotokos and of all the saints, give us a share and an inheritance with those who fear you in truth and who keep your commandments. For to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, is due all glory, honor, and worship, now and ever and forever. Amen.

5. Blessed are you, Lord God almighty. You know the human mind, you know our needs long before we ask or recognize them. Therefore, O loving King, good in every way, allow us in your great mercy to call upon your holy name with a clear conscience, and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from the evil one, and in your providence, arrange everything for our good. For to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, is due all glory, honor and worship, now and ever and forever. Amen.

6. Lord, O Lord, you hold all things in your spotless hand; you are long-suffering toward all of us, and you repent over our evil deeds. Remember your mercy and your compassion. Visit us in your goodness and for the rest of this day enable us to flee from the many wiles of the evil one, and keep our life secure by the grace of your all-holy Spirit. Through the mercy and the loving-kindness of your only-begotten Son with whom you are blessed, together with your all-holy, good, and life-creating Spirit, now and ever and forever. Amen.

7. Great and wonderful God, you govern all things with indescribable goodness and rich providence. You have granted us the good things of this earth, and through the good things already bestowed on us, have given us a pledge of the promised kingdom. You have kept us away from every evil during the part of this day which has passed, even until the present moment; now allow us to complete the rest of the day without blame in the presence of your holy glory singing hymns to you, O God, who alone are good and love us all. For you are our God, and we give glory to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever. Amen.

8. (This prayer is taken aloud at the conclusion of the Litany of Supplication.)

Prayer of the Entrance

The following dialog is recited quietly before the Small Entrance:

Priest: Good King, you love us all and bless all things, we fervently implore you with contrite heart and humble spirit to bless our comings and goings. For your coming and going, and your dwelling among us are blessed, O Christ our true God, now and ever and forever. Amen.

Deacon: Father, bless the holy entrance!

Priest: Blessed is the entrance of your saints, always, now and ever and forever.

Deacon: Amen.

The Ceremony of Mutual Forgiveness
(at the conclusion of Vespers on Cheesefare Sunday)

After the Dismissal of Vespers, the priest comes to the ambon, faces the faithful, and says:

Priest: Good Fathers and brothers and sisters, grant me your blessing
and pardon me all the wrongs I have done this day,
in word or deed or thought,
with all my spiritual and bodily faculties.

Response: May God himself forgive you, Reverend Father,
and have mercy on you!

Bless us, Reverend Father, and forgive us the wrongs that we have done this day,
in word or deed or thought,
with each of our spiritual and bodily faculties.

Priest: Through his grace, may God forgive you also,
and may he have mercy on you all!

After this exchange, the faithful come forward individually, make a reverence, and say to the priest:

Forgive me, a sinner.

to which the priest responds:

May God forgive you.

During the exchange of mutual forgiveness, the cantors and choir sing the Paschal Canon quietly.

When the mutual exchange is finished, the priest sings:

Priest: Through the prayers of our holy fathers, O Lord Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and save us.

Response: A - - - - men.
