

MOLEBEN
TO THE PRECIOUS
AND LIFE-GIVING CROSS

Metropolitan Cantor Institute
Byzantine Catholic Seminary
January, 2008

Foreword:

Devotion to the precious and life-giving Cross of our Lord, God, and Savior Jesus Christ has a great part in the spiritual life of the Byzantine Catholic Church. The "Moleben" is a prayer service drawn from the Matins (Morning Prayer) for the feast of the "Elevation of the Precious and Life-Giving Cross," celebrated on September 14. In this form, we give thanks for the glorious passion, life-giving death, and glorious resurrection of Jesus. Adorned with traditional Carpatho-Rusyn prostopinije (i.e., plainchant), it is a brief and powerful service.

Priest:

May Christ our true God have mercy on us and save us, through the prayers of his most pure mother, through the protection of the precious and life-giving Cross, and through the prayers of all the saints; for Christ is good and loves us all.

Response:

Cleanse us from every blemish of flesh and spirit.
 Grant us to pass through the night of this present life both courageously and seriously, awaiting the bright and manifest day of your only-begotten Son,
 our Lord, God, and Savior Jesus Christ.

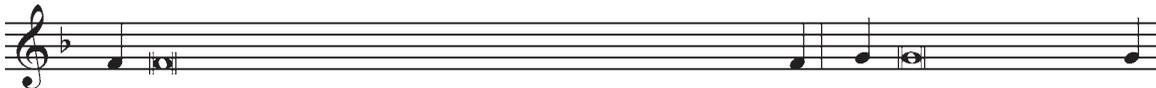

In that day, he shall come in glory to judge all,
 and will give to each of us the reward due to our actions.

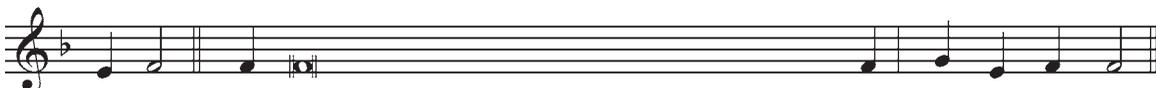

May we not fall into laziness,
 but take courage and be inspired to action.
 May we be found ready to enter into the joy of the divine bridal-chamber of his glory,
 where the voice of those who feast is ceaseless, and the delight of those who look upon the beauty of your face cannot be described.

For you are the true Light which enlightens and sanctifies everything in the world, and all creation praises you forever,

Response:

Call to Worship

Come, let us worship our King and God. Come, let us worship Christ, our King and God.

Come, let us worship and bow before the only Lord Jesus Christ, the King and our God.

Psalm 21

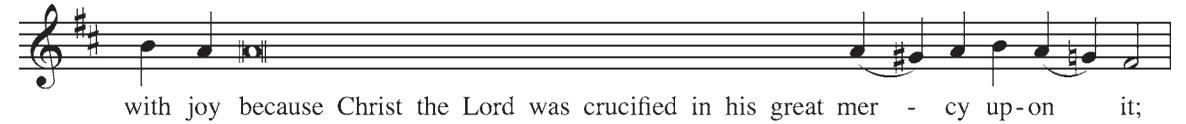

The verses are alternated between cantor and congregation.

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?
You are far from my plea and the cry of my distress.

O my God, I call by day and you give no reply;
I call by night and I find no peace.

and are re-lieved of ev - 'ry weak - ness. Let us kiss it with joy and fear;

with joy because Christ the Lord was crucified in his great mer - cy up-on it;

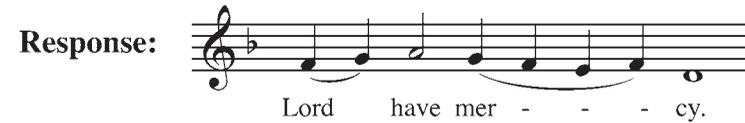

with fear because of our unworthi-ness due to sin. Through the Cross, Christ our God grants sal - va - tion to the world.

Deacon: Let us pray to the Lord.

Response:

Lord have mer - - - cy.

Prayer of Repentance of our holy father Basil the Great Priest: O Lord almighty, God of angelic hosts and of all flesh:

you dwell in the highest and care for the humble.
You search the innermost depths of mind and heart,
and clearly discern the hidden things of all people.
You are the Light without beginning, without change or alteration.

O King immortal, receive our prayers which we offer before you at this time from our sinful lips, ever trusting in your great mercy.
Forgive us our sins which we have committed,
both voluntarily and involuntarily.

through you as we give glo - ry to Christ.

O, what a strange mys - te - ry! The length and breadth of the Cross is equal to the heav - ens, for it sanc - tifies the whole world by di - vine grace.

By the Cross, savage na-tions are van - quished; by the Cross the authori-ty of kings is con-firmed. O di - vine Ladder, we go up to heav - en by you and by our hymns ex - alt Christ the Lord.

Cantor: (Tone 6) Glory...now and ever...

Doxastikon - Tone 6 samohlasen

To - day the Cross of the Lord is ex - alt - ed, and the faithful wel - come it with love. Through it they receive healing of both soul and bod - y

Yet you, O God, are holy, enthroned on the praises of Israel.

In you our fathers put their trust;
they trusted and you set them free.

When they cried to you, they escaped.
In you they trusted and never in vain.

But I am a worm and no man,
the butt of men, laughing-stock of the people.

All who see me deride me.
They curl their lips, they toss their heads.

"He trusted in the Lord, let him save him;
let him release him if this is his friend."

Yes, it was you who took me from the womb, entrusted me to my mother's breast.

To you I was committed from my birth,
from my mother's womb you have been my God.

Do not leave me alone in my distress;
Come close, there is none else to help.

Many bulls have surrounded me,
fierce bulls of Bashan close me in.

Against me they open wide their jaws,
like lions, rending and roaring.

Like water I am poured out,
disjointed are all my bones.

My heart has become like wax,
it is melted within my breast.

Parched as burnt clay is my throat,
my tongue cleaves to my jaws.

Many dogs have surrounded me,
a band of the wicked beset me.

They tear holes in my hands and my feet and lay me in the dust of death.

I can count every one of my bones.
These people stare at me and gloat;

they divide my clothing among them.
They cast lots for my robe.

O Lord, do not leave me alone,
my strength, make haste to help me!

Rescue my soul from the sword,
my life from the grip of these dogs.

Save my life from the jaws of these lions,
my poor soul from the horns of these oxen.

I will tell of your name to my brethren and praise you where they are assembled.

"You who fear the Lord give him praise;
all sons of Jacob, give him glory.
Revere him, Israel's sons.

For he has never despised nor scorned the poverty of the poor.

From him he has not hidden his face,
but he heard the poor man when he cried."

You are my praise in the great assembly.
My vows I will pay before those who fear him.

The poor shall eat and shall have their fill.
They shall praise the Lord, those who seek him.
May their hearts live for ever and ever!

All the earth shall remember and return to the Lord,
all families of the nations worship before him;

O rescue me, God, my helper,
and my tongue shall ring out your goodness.

O Lord, open my lips
and my mouth shall declare your praise.

For in sacrifice you take no delight, burnt offering from me you would refuse,

my sacrifice, a contrite spirit,
a humbled, contrite heart you will not spurn.

In your goodness, show favor to Zion:
rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.

Then you will be pleased with lawful sacrifice,
burnt offerings wholly consumed,
then you will be offered young bulls on your altar.

for the kingdom is the Lord's, he is ruler of the nations.
They shall worship him, all the mighty of the earth;

before him shall bow all who go down to the dust.
And my soul shall live for him, my children serve him.

They shall tell of the Lord to generations yet to come,
declare his faithfulness to peoples yet unborn:
"These things the Lord has done."

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever. Amen.

Three times, each with a reverence:
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
Glory to you, O God!

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
Glory to you, O God!

Psalm 50

Have mercy on me, God, in your kindness.
In your compassion blot out my offense.

O wash me more and more from my guilt and cleanse me from my sin.

My offenses truly I know them;
my sin is always before me.

Against you, you alone, have I sinned;
what is evil in your sight I have done.

That you may be justified when you give sentence
and be without reproach when you judge,

O see, in guilt I was born,
a sinner was I conceived.

Indeed you love truth in the heart;
then in the secret of my heart teach me wisdom.

O purify me, then I shall be clean;
O wash me, I shall be whiter than snow.

Make me hear rejoicing and gladness,
that the bones you have crushed may thrill.

From my sins turn away your face and blot out all my guilt.

A pure heart create for me, O God;
put a steadfast spirit within me.

Do not cast me away from your presence,
nor deprive me of your holy spirit.

Give me again the joy of your help;
with a spirit of fervor sustain me,
that I may teach transgressors your ways and sinners may return to you.
