O Pan - te - lei - mon, you have been well named: since you showed such great mer - cy to all as you watch over souls and care for bo - dies, you re - ceived your fitting name as a prize for your vir - tue, a recompense for your pi - e - ty. You are seen to be an invinci - ble war - ri - or crowned by our God: En - treat him to en - ligh - ten

You ceaselessly draw the grace of heal - ing from the immaterial foun - tains your name and good - ness both reflect the image of the compassion-ate God: en - treat him to take pi - ty on those who sing to you.

(on 2) acclaim him all you peoples.
