SIXTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

The deposition of the venerable Belt of the Most Holy Mother of God. At the time of her dormition, the Theotokos left her belt to the apostle Thomas. This was later taken to Constantinople and kept in a sealed casket in the church of Blachernae. In the time of the emperor Leo the Wise, the casket was opened and the belt placed on the Empress Zoe, who recovered from a life-threatening illness.

Hymn

melody: Anhel Bozij / When the angel came

1. Once there was a man, who had made a plan, Had to trav - el far a - way.
2. Two men took this wealth, bet - tered it themselves, Thus re - paid their mas - ter's choice.
3. When the man re - turned, of their skills he learned, And commend - ed those who planned;
4. Now, the time and day! Cast your sin a - way! Do not waste God's gen - 'rous grace!

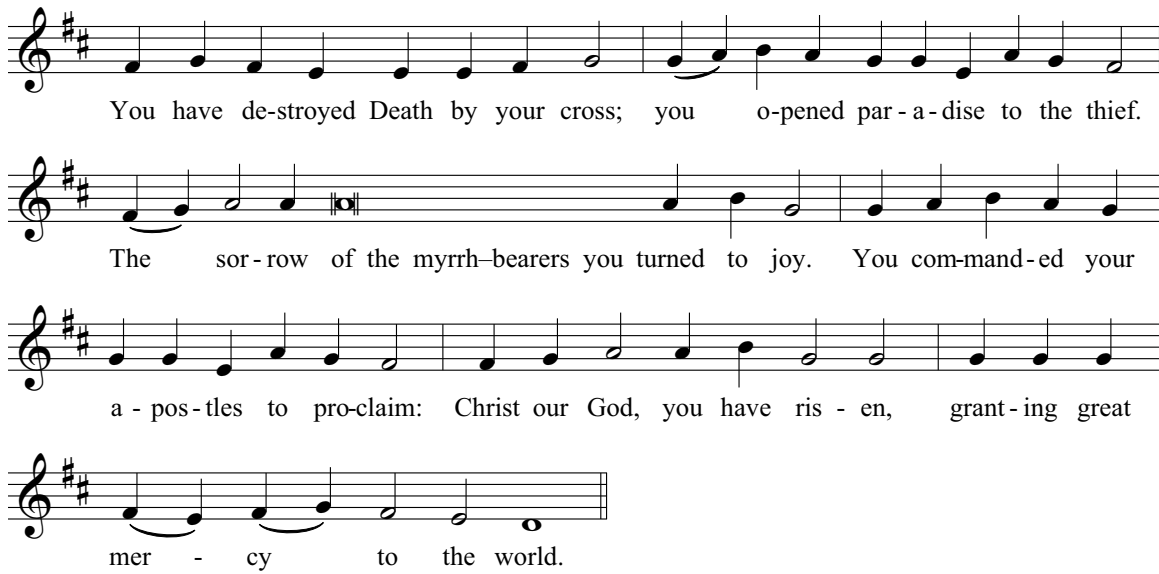

He called to his side serv - ants who, in pride, Each were giv - en funds that day.
One, who lived in dread, hid the wealth in - stead, Left it with no in - t'rest paid.
But from him whose fear made no ef - fort here, All was tak - en from his hand.
E - ven in our woes, wres - tling with our foes, We can see Christ's lov - ing face!
