

Vesper Propers, September 26, 2010
Eighteenth Sunday after Pentecost

The passing of the holy apostle and evangelist, John the Theologian, son of Zebedee, who, with his brother James and Peter was a witness of the transfiguration and also of the passion of the Lord. At the cross he took Mary as his mother, at the command of the dying Lord. In the Gospel and his other writings he shows himself to be a theologian. He was found worthy to contemplate the glory of the incarnate Word, which he saw and proclaimed. (cf May 8)

Supplement for The Order of Vespers for Sundays after Pentecost, 2006

Lamplighting Psalms in the Tone of the Week (Tone 1, p. 24), stichera 10-7.

Cantor: If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, Lord who would survive?
(on 6) But with you is found forgiveness: for this we revere you.

Tone 1 podoben: Nebesnych činov

As the wit-ness of revela-tions be-yond words and in-ter-pret-er of the sub-lime mys-t'ries of God, O son of Ze-be-dee, you have writ-ten the gos-pel of Christ for us. You taught us to glo-ri-fy the Fa-ther, Son, and Ho-ly Spir-it.

Cantor: My soul is longing for the Lord. I count on his word.
(on 5) My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak.
(Repeat "As the witness of revelations...")

Cantor: Let the watchman count on daybreak
(on 4) and Israel on the Lord.

Lyre of heav-enly canti-cles, di-vine-ly moved, you are the mys-ti-cal writ-er and the God-in-spired voice me-lo-diously singing the di-vine hymns. Pray for the sal-va-tion of our souls.

Cantor: Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption, (on 3) Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity. (Repeat "Lyre of heavenly canticles...")

Cantor: Praise the Lord, all you nations, Psalm 116
(on 2) acclaim him all you peoples!

O be-lov-ed of God, with your thun-der-ing voice, you de-clared the wis-dom of God. You pro-claimed a-loud the hid-den word by fre-quent-ly say-ing: In the be-gin-ning was the Word.
 You have il-lu-mined all with the knowl-edge of God.

Troparion of Saint John the Theologian - Tone 2

Be-lov-ed A-pos-tle of Christ our God, make haste to deliver a people that lacks an-y oth-er de-fense. He who ac-cepted that you lay your head on his breast will al-so ac-cept your pray'r. Pray to Christ, O
The-o-lo-gian, that he may overcome the darkness of pa-gan na-tions, and beg that he grant us peace and a-bun-dant mer-cy.

Cantor: Now and ever...

Festal theotokion in the same tone (Tone 2, p. 47)

Cantor: Strong is the love of the Lord for us;
(on 1) he is faithful forever. (Repeat "O beloved of God...")

Cantor: (Tone 2) Glory...

Doxastikon - Tone 2 samohlasen

Let all the human race sing the prais-es due to John, the son of thun-der, the vir-gin apostle and the bear-er of God's mes-sage, the chief theologian and the first to pro-claim the truths which are con-tained in the teachings of di-vine Wis-dom. For al-ways being filled with that which is di-vine, he said: In the be-gin-ning was the Word, not sep-a-rat-ed from the Fa-ther but e-qual to the Father accord-ing to his na-ture, there-by show-ing us the right worship of the Ho-ly Trin-i-ty.
He has al-so shown that the Word was with the Father, the Cre-a-tor of all, that he bears life and has shown us the true light. O awe-some mar-vel!

O Wis - dom! John was filled with love for God; he was al - so filled with glory, hon - or and faith; he was the preach - er of our pure faith.
