

Vesper Propers, December 5, 2010
Twenty-eight Sunday after Pentecost

Our venerable and God-bearing father Sabbas the Sanctified, who, born in Cappadocia, arrived at the desert of Judea, and instituted a new sort of eremetical life in seven monasteries, which were called "laurae." He gathered solitaries under one overseer (hegumen). In the great laura, which afterwards was adorned with his name, he dwelt for many years, a shining example of sanctity. He strove assiduously for the faith taught at the Council of Chalcedon. (532)

O Fa-ther of the spiritual life, similar to the an-gels, fel-low-cit-izen with the saints, associ-ate of the proph-ets, co-heir with the mar-tyrs and a-pos-tles, you dwell for-ever in that Light that does not fade. Il-lu-mined by its di-vine ra-di-ance, en-light-ened by the object of all your de-sire, re-main-ing in-timately at his side, you re-joice endlessly in the divine contempla-tion of his beau - ty. Pray to Christ; beg him to grant the Church har - mo - ny, peace, and the grace of sal - va - - - tion.

Cantor: My soul is longing for the Lord. I count on his word.
(on 5) My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak.
All repeat: "O Father of the spiritual life, similar to the angels..."

Cantor: Let the watchman count on daybreak
(on 4) and Israel on the Lord.

forth divine fruit for the cho - sen. Pray to Christ; beg him to grant the Church har - mo - ny, peace, and the grace of sal - va - - - tion.

We hon-or you, O ho - ly fa - ther, as the spir - it - ual guide for all monks, for you have taught us all to walk the straight path. Bless-ed are you who have served Christ and have tram - pled down the power of the en - e - my.
 O com - pan - ion of the angels, the just and the saints, in - ter - cede to - geth - er with them be - fore the Lord that he might have mer - cy on our souls.

Cantor: Now and ever...

Aposticha theotokion in the same tone (Tone 8, page 110).

O Fa - ther of the spir - it - ual life, you are a resplendent pil - lar of vir - tues,

Doxastikon of our venerable father Sabbas - Tone 6 samohlasen

Pre - serv - ing the image of God faultless-ly with - in you, and, through asceticism, subjecting the disorderly passions to the spir - it, you have ascended as far as possible in the di - vine like - ness. You strug - gled to submit the lower to the high - er, val - iantly dominat-ing your na - ture, mak-ing the flesh a serv-ant of the spir - it. Thus you have become a mod - el for monks, a founder of hermitages, an instruct-or for pray'r - ful hearts, a cer-tain rule of vir - tue. Now in the heav - ens, all mirrors have been laid aside, O bless - ed one, and you clearly contemplate the Ho - ly Trin - i - ty, in - ter-ced-ing for the faith - ful who hon - or you with their whole heart.

Cantor: (Tone 3) Now and ever...

Dogmatikon in the Tone of the week (Tone 3, page 53).
