Twenty-third Sunday after Pentecost

Our venerable father Joannicus the Great in the coenobium of Antidium in Bithynia, monk, who, having left the military after more than twenty years in arms, pursued the solitary life in different forests of Mt. Olympus. He was accustomed to end his prayer with these words: "God my hope, Christ my refuge, Holy Spirit my protector." (846)

The holy martyr Nicander, bishop of Myra and the priest Hermas, at Myra in Lycia. Both were ordained by the Apostle Titus. They were distinguished by a great zeal for the Faith and for their great labors in winning pagans for Christ. Because of this, they were tortured in various ways and eventually were buried alive. Lamplighting Psalms in the Tone of the Week (Tone 6, p. 82), stichera 10-7.

Cantor: (Tone 4) If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, Lord, who would survive?
(on 6) But with you is found forgiveness: for this we revere you.

Stichera of our venerable father Joannicus - Tone 4 samohlasen

You were illumined with light di - vine when with purity of mind you lift-ed up your eyes and preferred the eternal things which are to come to the things which are in - con - stant. Then re-ceiv-ing fire in your heart, O fa - ther, like a deer you thirsted for love di-vine, and un-mind-ful of both flesh and blood you pre-pared yourself for as-cet - ic strug - gle. For this reason you made the passions of the bod - y sub - ject to your soul.

Cantor: My soul is longing for the Lord. I count on his word.
(on 5) My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak.

To as - cend the moun - tain of God, you made your dwell - ing in the heights, with - out being brought low by the vex - ing needs of this low - ly bod - y,

O fa - ther Jo - an - ni - cus; for uniting yourself to the Good One by stand - ing whole nights and days in pray'r, you were il - lu - mined and received the gift of proph - e - cy be - holding things far off as if they were near, and fore - tell - ing to the faithful things which are to come. Where - fore we glo - ri - fy you as a di - vine teach - - - er.

Blest are you in your la - bor for Christ, for thus you denounced the power of the en - e - my, O con-vers-er with the an - gels, com - pan - ion of the venerable and the right - eous. Pray with them to the Lord that our souls find mer - cy!

Cantor: Now and ever...

for your earth - ly la - bor. You destroyed the hordes of de - mons and at-tained to the ranks of the an - gels, whose life you blamelessly em - u - lat - ed. With your boldness be-fore Christ our God, ask peace for our souls.

Sunday aposticha in the Tone of the Week (Tone 6, p. 88), concluding with:

Cantor: (Tone 8) Glory...

Aposticha doxastikon of our venerable father Joannicus - Tone 8 samohlasen

We hon - or you as the instructor of a mul - ti - tude of monks, O Jo - an - ni - cus our fa - ther; for by your steps we have learned how to walk a - right!

Cantor: Let the watchman count on daybreak
(on 4) and Israel on the Lord.

The assaults and de - mon - ic darts you were able to se - vere - ly blunt with the entreaties of your pray'rs, and by the pow'r of God, O most glo - rious one, you have tri-umphed o - ver them. Where - fore, refreshed by the humility of your heart, you were giv - en miracles as honors by the Good One! For this cause, your precious relics pour forth fra - grant myrrh, for you have shown yourself to be the sweet fra-grance of Christ, O fa - ther Jo - an - ni - cus.

Cantor: (Tone 2) Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption,
(on 3) Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity.

Stichera of the holy martyr Nicander - Tone 2 samohlasen

Hav-ing been giv - en a fit-ting name through the Lord's prov - i - dence, O fa - ther, you con - firmed it by signifying it in the flesh; for in your endurance, you van-quished a mul - ti - tude, both of ad - ver - sar - ies and of tor - tur - ers.

 Where-fore, re-ceiv-ing a crown of glo-ry, you cried out with faith: Glory to your in - vin - ci - ble might, O Christ who loves us all!

Cantor: Praise the Lord, all you nations, Psalm 116
 (on 2) acclaim him all you peoples!

On this, your di-vine me - mo - ri - al, you pour forth the most fra-grant myrrh of heal - ing up - on us to - day, O wise Ni - can - der;
 you drive a - way the darkness of sorrow and bod - i - ly suf - fer - ing,
 and fill with rich-est grace the as-sem-bly of all who cry out to Christ:
 You are the in - ex - haus - ti - ble myrrh, mak - ing fra-grant all who call up - on you!

Cantor: Strong is the love of the Lord for us;
 (on 1) he is faithful forever.

As you have bold-ness be - fore Christ, who a - lone is glo-rious in his saints, en - treat him, O ven - 'ra - ble Ni - can - der, in be - half of all who celebrate your mem - ry with love and praise your cor-rec - tions, that through grace, we may be-come par - tak - ers of the in - ef - fa - ble good things of Christ and re - ceive his incor-rup - ti - ble glo - - - ry.

Cantor: (Tone 6) Glory...

Doxastikon of our venerable father Joannicus - Tone 6 samohlasen

O ven-er - a - ble fa-ther, the sound of your corrections has gone forth in - to all the world; there-fore you have found, in heav - en, the re - ward
