O Pan - te - lei - mon, you have been well named: since you showed such great mer - cy to all as you watch o - ver souls and care for bo - dies, you re - ceived your fit - ting name as a prize for your vir - tue, a re - com-pense for your pi - e - ty. You are seen to be an in - vin - ci - ble war - ri - or crowned by our God: En-treat him to en - ligh - ten and save our souls.

Cantor: Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption, (on 3) Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity.

You cease-less-ly draw the grace of heal- ing from the im-mat-er-i-al foun-tains of the Sav-ior; then you gen-er-ous-ly pour them forth, be-stow-ing them ge-ner-ous-ly on those who draw near to you with faith. By the grace of God, enlighten all the faith-ful who cel-e-brate your glorious, holy and radiant feast. Bles-sed one, your name and good-ness both reflect the image of the com-pas-sion-ate God: en-treat him to take pi-ty on those who sing to you.

Cantor: Praise the Lord, all you nations; Psalm 116 (on 2) acclaim him all you peoples.

Cruel-ly as-sault-ed by sea and fire was your love for Christ test-ed

Aposticha doxastikon of the holy great-martyr Pantaleimon - Tone 8 samohlasen

In fol-lowing the holy faith of your moth-er, you cor-rect-ed the impiety of your fath-er. In or-der to serve the Physi-cian of Souls, you stud-ied the heal-ing arts of med-i-cine. Suc-cess-ful in all your undertakings by the grace of God, you made ma-ny pains dis-ap-pear and you be-came the heal-er of souls. Con-stant in your struggles and as-sid-u-ous in pray'er, O val-iant wit-ness of Christ, you intercede be-fore him that he save our souls.

Cantor: Now and ever...
