When Pe - ter the Rock, the standard-bearer of the divine Apostles, trav - eled through - out the world, he made it firm on a sol - id foun - da - tion.
In you, O Pancratius, he found a stone of great price, and he des - tined you to be the cornerstone of a church, O bless - ed one. You o - ver-threw the tem - ples and sacred stones of the i - dols by the di - vine pow - er of the Word who willed, in his good pleas - ure, to take flesh and make his dwell - ing a-mong us.

Cantor: Praise the Lord all you nations; Psalm 116
(on 2) acclaim him all you peoples.

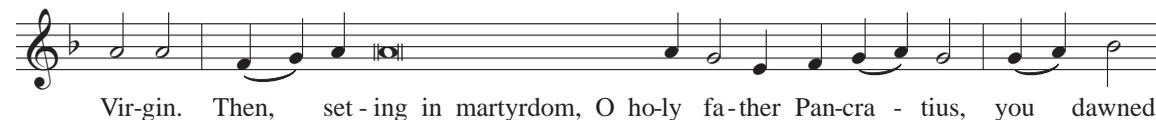

②

Driv-ing off the dark spirits of evil by your word, O Pan-cra - tius, you made your peo-ple spir-itual through the grace of the Ho-ly Spir - it. You plowed the fur-rows of their hearts and made them grow as good wheat, which you pre-sent-ed to the Master of the har - vest. You in - ter - cede for the faith - ful who ac-claim you, O ho - ly mar - tyr.

Cantor: Strong is the love of the Lord for us;
(on 1) he is faithful forever.

①

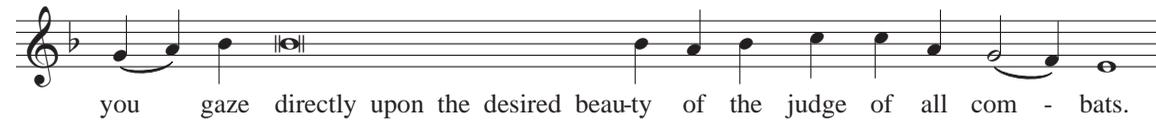

You have changed the West into an East, filled with dawn-ing light, for you brought it, as its sun, to the knowl-edge of God who in - ef - fa - bly dawned for us all from the

Vir-gin. Then, set-ing in martyrdom, O ho-ly fa-ther Pan-cra - tius, you dawned a - gain in the nev - er - set - ting Light. Now that mir - rors have passed a - way, you gaze directly upon the desired beau-ty of the judge of all com - bats.

Cantor: (Tone 4) Glory...now and ever...
