Il - lu - mined by the Ho - ly Spi - rit, O all - praised mar - tyrs, you ar - rayed your - selves against the wiles of the dev - il, and, van - qui - shing him with pow - er, you pre - vailed o - ver him by di - vine skill.
Where - fore, cel - e - bra - ting your splendid memor - i - al to - day we ho - nor your sufferings with praises as it is ev - er meet, O mar - tyrs of great re - nown.

Cantor: Praise the Lord, all you nations,
(on 2) acclaim him all you peoples!

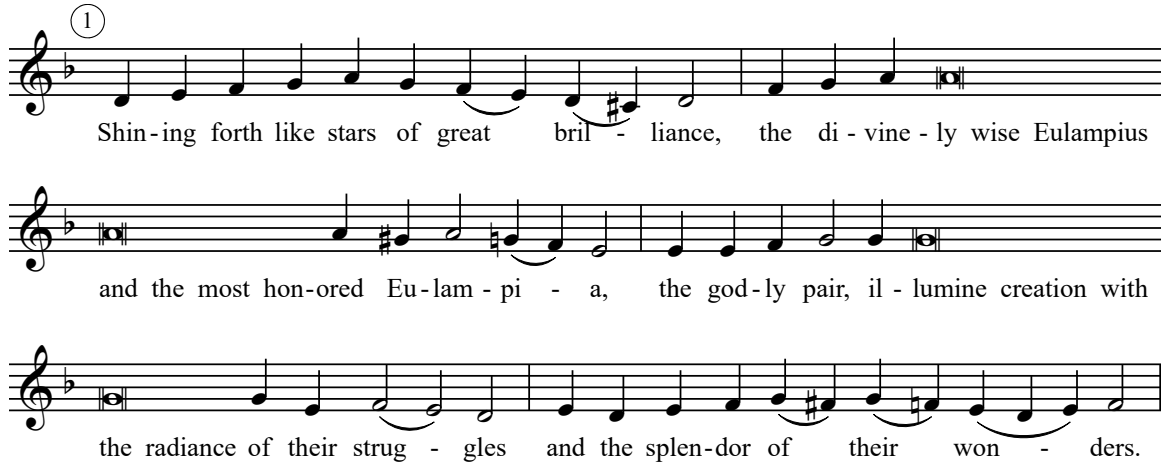

②

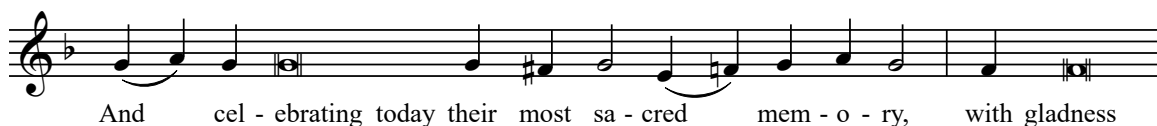

U - ni - ted in fire and tor - ments, O ho - ly ones, by wis - dom you re - mained un - wav - er - ing; and burn - ing like lamps with the Spir - it's fer - vor, you have il - lu - mined the hearts of the faith - ful with grace. Where - fore, ev - 'ry age and gen - er - a - tion cel - ebrates your ho - ly mem - o - ry, hymn - ing the Lord.

Cantor: Strong is the love of the Lord for us;
(on 1) he is faithful forever.

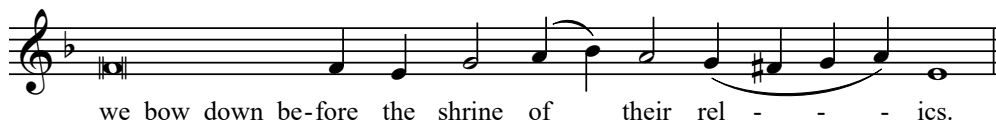

①

Shin - ing forth like stars of great bril - liance, the di - vine - ly wise Eulampius and the most hon - ored Eu - lam - pi - a, the god - ly pair, il - lumine creation with the radiance of their strug - gles and the splen - dor of their won - ders.

And celebrating today their most sacred memory, with gladness

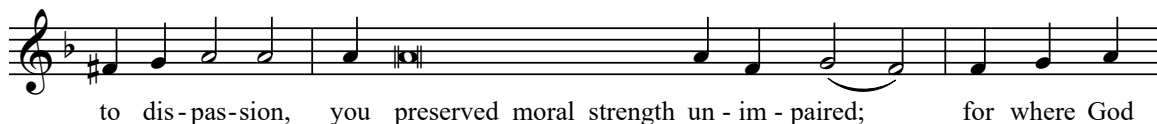

we bow down before the shrine of their relics.

Cantor: Glory...

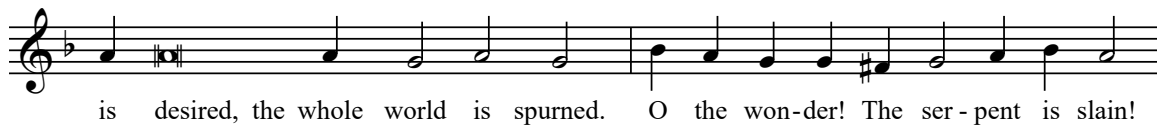

Doxastikon of the holy martyrs Eulampius and Eulampia - Tone 4 samohlasen

U-niting your identical names to your fraternal love, and joining purity to dis-pas-sion, you preserved moral strength un-im-paired; for where God is desired, the whole world is spurned. O the wonder! The serpent is slain!

He who dwells beneath the earth, who spoke un-right-cously a-against heaven, has been brought down through the suffer-ings of the brother and sister,

Eulampius and Eulampia. To them let us cry out in in spir-it-ual hymns:

You that fin-ished well the race for Christ, ask peace for the world and great mer - cy for our souls.

Cantor: (Tone 3) Now and ever...

Aposticha

Sunday aposticha in the Tone of the Week (Tone 3, p. 54), concluding with:

Cantor: (Tone 4) Glory...

Aposticha doxastikon of the holy martyrs Eulampius and Eulampia - Tone 4 samohlasen

Il - lumined with the light of the Trin - i - ty, the brother and sis-ter set at naught the savagery of the ty-rants. Where-fore, tram-pling down the flame, they joined chor-us and chant-ed to-geth - er: "Be - hold, how good and joyous it is, for brethren to dwell togeth-er in u - ni - ty!" And look-ing to di-vine glo - ry, they were count-ed worthy of heav-en's glo - ry, ever entreating Christ our God in our be-half, that our souls may be saved.

Cantor: Now and ever...
