Aposticha doxastikon of the holy martyr Leontius - Tone 4 samohlasen

Let heaven revel in splen - dor to - day, and let us, the earth - ly faith - ful, re - joice in the memory of the mar-tyr Le - on - tius; for this day is crowned, not with the sac-ri-fic-es of beasts, but with the sac-rifice of praise, with spir - it - ual flow - ers. For, standing with us as one a - dorned, off - 'ring up the Unbloody Sacrifice to the Be - stow - er of Crowns, he ra - diantly offers up in - ter - ces - sion that those who faithfully keep his mem - 'ry may at - tain the courts of Par - a - dise.

Cantor: Now and ever...

Aposticha theotokion in the same tone (Tone 4, p. 67).

Third Sunday After Pentecost

The holy martyr Leontius, soldier at Tripoli in Phoenicia, who, having suffered patiently harsh tortures in prison, was granted the crown of martyrdom in the reign of the emperor Vespasian. (c. 73)

Supplement for The Order of Vespers for Sundays after Pentecost, 2006

Lamplighting Psalms in the Tone of the Week (Tone 2, p. 36), stichera 10-4.

Cantor: (Tone 8) Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption, (on 3) Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity.

Stichera for the holy martyr Leontius - Tone 8 samohlasen

What shall we call you, O illus-tri-ous mar - tyr? An ob - la - tion from Greece, since it is your home - land? The pu - rification of Phoenicia, since there you were sac - ri - ficed? A light shin-ing in the dark - - ness, a val-iant com - batant, un-bowed be-neath the blows? Man - i - fold is your glory, O blessed Le - on - ti - us! In - tercede for the sal - va - tion of our souls!

Cantor: Praise the Lord, all you nations,
(on 2) acclaim him all you peoples!

How shall we invoke you, O vic-tor-ious ath - lete? A sol - dier of Christ, defeating the en - e - my? A sub - du - er of the passions, fighting for the Faith?
 A friend of the poor, feeding the hungry, lov-ing jus - tice? A di-vine-ly - minded mar - tyr? Count-less were your sufferings, resplendent your strug - gles!
 In - tercede for the sal - va - tion of our souls!

Cantor: Strong is the love of the Lord for us;
 (on I) he is faithful forever.

Who would not admire you, O Le-on - ti-us? At-tain-ing the Fountain of all truth as your dwell - ing, you re-fresh believers with a veritable river of bless - ings.
 You free - ly off - er your gifts to all who thirst, and you bring joy to those who drink from the streams of your good - ness. In - tercede for the sal - va - tion of our souls!

Cantor: (Tone 1) Glory...

Doxastikon - Tone 1 samohlasen

O all-praised ath-lete Le-on - tius! nei-ther fire nor wound-ing nor the sword were a - ble to separate you from the love of Christ; but, suf-fering manfully in the midst of your tor - tur - ers, you a - bol - ished the offerings made to i - dols, O di - vine - ly-wise bearer of the crown of mar - tyr - dom, and now you dance in the heav - ens! In - ter-cede for the sal - va - tion of our souls!

Cantor: (Tone 2) Now and ever...
