

A New Marian Hymnal

Traditional Spiritual Songs
In English and Slavonic

From the forthcoming hymnal for the Byzantine (Ruthenian) Catholic Church

Metropolitan Cantor Institute
Byzantine Catholic Archeparchy of Pittsburgh
August 31, 2019

The Byzantine (Ruthenian) Catholic Church possesses as a rich inheritance a large collection of hymns to the Mother of God, the Theotokos and Ever-virgin Mary. These hymns are sung before and after services, and at pilgrimages and other events in her honor. The melodies of these hymns are often used for settings of hymns to other saints, and also for the Cherubic Hymn of the Divine Liturgy.

In 1984, a Marian Hymnal was published containing an assortment of these hymns in English and Slavonic. This volume is intended as an expanded version of this collection, with some material contained in previous books but omitted from the Marian Hymnal. At the same time, we are taking this opportunity to correct typographical error and bad accents, as well as some phrasings which are unnecessarily different from the original Slavonic hymns, many of which are sung in our church to this day.

This collection is part of the Hymnal Project of the Metropolitan Cantor Institute, and will form the “Marian Hymns” section of a forthcoming complete hymnal for our church. For more information:

https://mci.archpitt.org/songs/Hymnal_project.html

How you can help:

1. Please send any corrections or suggestions to mci@archpitt.org.
2. We are particularly looking for assistance in preparing literal translations of some of the Slavonic hymns in this collection, as well as single translations of additional verses which have not yet made their way into English. If you would like to help with this project, please write to mci@archpitt.org.
3. Try singing the hymns in this collection, and let us know how they work, and what improvements might be made.

May God richly bless us as we honor his holy Mother!

Pronunciation of Slavonic

The Church Slavonic texts in the following pages are presented in a variation of the Latin alphabet used with English, rather than in the original Cyrillic alphabet. Certain additional symbols are added to indicate the correct pronunciation. The system used here is one commonly employed in our prayer books.

In Church Slavonic, each letter has a uniform sound in whatever word it is found.

The following letters vary in pronunciation from their equivalent in the English language:

VOWELS

A as in fAther (approx.)

E as in bEt

I as in bIt

O as in mOre

U as in mOOn

Y as in bUt

CONSONANTS

C as ts in wits

Č as ch in Church

CH as ch in loch

D' as di in radiant

J as y in yet

L' as li in brilliant

Ň as ni in union

R is always trilled

Š as sh in show

T' as ti in celestial

V' as vi in Savior

Ž as z in pleasure

Note: d', l', Ň, t', and v' indicate that the given consonant is followed by the sound as "y" as in yellow, as shown in the examples above. (D' and T' are sometimes written Ď and Ť.)

Accented vowels are marked in order to assist in pronunciation, but may not be strongly accented when sung.

When in doubt, use the locally accepted pronunciation of Church Slavonic.

The musical score is written on four staves in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is simple and folk-like, with a mix of quarter and eighth notes. The lyrics are in Slavonic and are placed below the notes. The first line starts with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp. The second line continues the melody. The third line begins with a repeat sign (double bar line with two dots). The fourth line ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.
