John Chrysostom and Basil the Great”*

Foreword

The combination of Vespers and the Divine Liturgy of Our Holy Father Basil the Great is sung four times in the Byzantine Church Year: the Eve of Christmas, the Eve of Theophany, Great and Holy Thursday, and Great and Holy Saturday.

In many Byzantine Catholic parishes, the Vigil Divine Liturgy on January 5 is combined with the Great Blessing of Water and with the Litija (the blessing of bread, wheat, wine and oil). This booklet contains all of the congregational singing for this service, as well as the priestly prayers which are taken aloud at the celebration of the St. Basil Divine Liturgy and at the Great Blessing of Water. It is hope that the booklet will facilitate participation in this most important and beautiful of Byzantine liturgical services.

The Vigil Divine Liturgy
The Theophany of Our Lord, God and Savior, Jesus Christ

GREAT VESPERS

The faithful STAND when the preparatory rites are completed and the clergy quietly say the prayers before commencing the Divine Liturgy. The holy doors remain closed until the Little Entrance.

Deacon: Reverend Father, give the blessing.

Celebrant: Blessed is the kingdom of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Response:

Each time with a reverence:

Psalm 103:

1. Bless the Lord, O my soul! Lord my God, how great you are, 2. clothed in maj - es - ty and glo - - - ry, wrapped in light as in a robe. 3. You stretch out the heav - ens like a tent. A - bove the rains you build your dwell - ing. 4. You make the clouds your char - - - i - ot, you walk on the wings of the wind; 5. you make your an - gels spir - - - its and your min - is - ters a flam - ing fire. 6. You found - ed the earth on its base, to stand firm from age to age. 7. You make the grass grow for the cat - - - tle and the plants to serve man's needs,

8. that he may bring forth bread from the earth and wine to cheer man's heart; 9. oil, to make his face shine and bread to strength - en man's heart. 10. I will sing to the Lord all my life, make mu - sic to my God while I live.
11. You made the moon to mark the months; the sun knows the time for its set - ting. 12. How man - y are your works, O Lord! In wis - dom you have made them all.

13. Glo - ry to the Fa - ther, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Spir - it, 14. now and ev - - - er and for - ev - - er. A - - men.

Then three times, with a bow each time:

Al - - - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!
Glo - ry to you, O God!

The faithful may SIT as the Litany of Peace begins:

Deacon: In peace, let us pray to the Lord.

Response:

① Lord, have mer - cy.

Deacon: For peace from on high and for the salvation of our souls, let us pray to the Lord.

Response:

To you, O Lord.

The celebrant prays aloud:

Celebrant: Evening, morning, and at noon we praise you, we bless you, we thank you, and we pray to you, Master of All and loving Lord. Let our prayer rise like incense before you and do not let our hearts be turned to evil words or thoughts, but deliver us from all that might ensnare our souls. For to you Lord, O Lord, our eyes are turned and in you we hope; let us not be put to shame, O our God.

For to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, is due all glory, honor, and worship now and ever and forever.

Response:

THE LAMP-LIGHTING PSALMS

The faithful STAND for the great incensation of the church. They may SIT when the great incensation is complete. The opening verses of Psalm 140 with refrain are sung according to the tone of the first sticheron:

Psalm 140: - Tone 2

O Lord, I have cried to you, hear me. Hear me, O Lord! O Lord, I have cried to you, hear me; re - ceive the voice of my pray'r when I call up - on you.
Hear me, O Lord! Let my pray'r as - cend to you like in - cense and the lift - ing up of my hands like an eve-ning sac - ri - fice. Hear me, O Lord!

O Lord, set a guard before my mouth and set a seal on the door of my lips.

Let not my heart be inclined to evil,
nor make excuses for sins I commit.

Let me never share in sinners' feasting.
If a just man strikes or reproves me it is kindness but let the oil of the wicked not anoint my head.

Let my prayer be ever against their malice.

The princes were thrown down by the side of the rock;
then they understood that my words were kind.

As a millstone is shattered to pieces on the ground,
so their bones were strewn at the mouth of the grave.

To you, Lord God, my eyes are turned;
in you I take refuge; spare my soul!

From the trap they have laid for me keep me safe;
keep me from the snares of those who do evil.

Let the wicked fall into the traps they have set while I pursue my way *unharm*ed.

Psalm 141 With all my voice I cry to the Lord, with all my voice I entreat the Lord.

I pour out my trouble before him;
I tell him all my distress while my spirit faints within me.

But you, O Lord, know my path.
On the way where I shall walk they have hidden a snare to entrap me.

Look on my right and see:
there is no one who takes my part.

I have no means of escape,
not one who cares for my soul.

I cry to you, O Lord.
I have said: "You are my refuge, all I have in the land of the living."

Listen, then, to my cry for I am in the depths of distress.

Rescue me from those who pursue me for they are stronger than I.

Bring my soul out of this prison and then I shall praise your name.

Around me the just will assemble because of your goodness to me.

Psalm 129: Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord;
Lord, hear my voice!

Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my pleading.

If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, Lord, who would survive?
But with you is found forgiveness: for this we revere you.

My soul is waiting for the Lord. I count on his word.
My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak.

Cantor: Let the watchman count on daybreak
(on 4) and Israel on the Lord.

④

When the Fore - runner saw the One who is our en - light - en - ment, the One who has brought light to all, com - ing to be bap - tized, his heart re - joiced and his hand trem - - - bled. He point - ed him out to the peo - ple and said: This is the Sav - ior of Israel who delivered us from cor - rup - tion. O Christ our God, O Sin - less One, glo - - ry to you!

Cantor: Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption, (on 3) Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity.

③

O our Sav - ior, the army of an - gels trem - bled when they saw you bap - tized by your ser - vant, and the Ho - ly Spirit bearing wit - ness and de-scend-ing, and when they heard the voice of the Fa-ther speak-ing from heav - en: "This One up - on whom the Fore-run - ner lays his hands is my be - lov - ed Son in whom I am well-pleased. O

Christ our God, glo - ry to you!

Cantor: Praise the Lord, all you nations, Psalm 116
(on 2) acclaim him all you peoples!

② When the Jor - dan River re - ceived you, O Foun - tain - head, the Com-fort-er descended in the form of a dove. Now be-hold the mar-vel:

the One who bowed the heavens bows his head to the Fore-run-ner, and the one made of clay cries out to his Mak - er: "Why do you com - mand me to perform what is be - yond my pow - er? It is

I who need to be bap - tized by you." O Christ our God, O Sin - less One, glo - - ry to you!

Cantor: Strong is the love of the Lord for us;
(on 1) he is faithful forever.

O God and Lord, when you resolved to save those who had strayed from you, you con - de - scend - ed to take the form of a ser - vant, for it was fit - ting that you assumed, for us, our hu - man na - ture.
And when you were baptized in the flesh, O our Re - deem - er, it made us wor - thy of your for - give - ness. There - fore, we cry out to you: O Christ our God, our Ben - e - fac - tor, glo - - - ry to you!

The faithful STAND when the holy doors are opened and the cantor sings:

Cantor: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever. Amen.

The Doxastikon is sung while the Little Entrance with the holy gospel book and censer is made through the northern door and the holy doors.

Doxastikon - Tone 2

You have bowed your head before the Fore-run - ner, and you have crushed the heads of the de - mons. You have de - scend - ed into the waters and giv - en light to all things, that they may glo - ri - fy you, O Sav - ior, the En - light - en - ment of our souls.

Deacon: Wisdom! Be attentive!

The clergy and servers enter the sanctuary as “O Joyful Light” is sung. The sanctuary and the faithful are incensed.

O Joy - ful Light of the ho - ly glo - ry of the Fa - ther Im - mor - tal, the hea - ven - ly, ho - ly, bles - sed One, O Je - sus Christ: Now that we have reached the set - ting of the sun, and see the eve - ning light, we sing to God, Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Spir - it. It is fit - ting at all times to raise a song of praise in meas - ured mel - o - dy to you, O Son of God, the Giv - er of Life. There - fore, the un - i - verse sings your glo - ry.

Let us, who mys-tic-'ly rep-re-sent the cher-u-bim, and sing the thricelife - cre - a - ting Trin - i - ty, now set a - side all earth - ly cares, Deacon: For the precious gifts placed before us, let us pray to the Lord.

Celebrant: Lord our God, you created us and brought us into this life. You have shown us ways to salvation and have bestowed on us the revelation of heavenly mysteries. You yourself have appointed us to this service by the power of your Holy Spirit. Therefore, O Lord, be pleased to make us servants of your new covenant and ministers of your holy mysteries. According to your abundant mercy, receive us as we draw near your holy altar so that we may be worthy to offer you this spiritual and unbloody sacrifice for our sins and for the people's failings. Receive it as a fragrant aroma upon your holy, heavenly, and mystical altar, and send down upon us, in return, the grace of your Holy Spirit. Look upon us, O God, and behold this our worship, and accept it as you accepted the gifts of Abel, the sacrifices of Noah, the first-fruits of Abraham, the priesthood of Moses and Aaron, and the peace-offerings of Samuel. Just as you accepted this true worship from the hands of your apostles, now, O Lord, in your goodness, accept these gifts from the hands of us sinners. May we who have been made worthy to minister without blame at your holy altar obtain the reward of faithful and wise stewards on the fearsome day of your just retribution.

Grant this through the mercies of your only-begotten Son with whom you are blessed, together with your all-holy, good, and life-creating Spirit, now and ever and forever.

*Before the profession of the Symbol of Faith,
the assembly is invited to be reconciled with one another:*

Celebrant: Peace be to all.

Response:
And to your spir - it.

Celebrant: Let us love one another that with one mind we may profess.

Response:

The Fa-ther, and the Son, and the Ho-ly Spir-it: the Trin-i-ty, one in es-sence and un-di-vid - - ed.

Deacon: [The doors! The doors!] In wisdom let us be attentive!

Symbol of Faith

I be-lieve in one God, the Father Al-might-y, Cre-a-tor of heaven and earth, of all things visible and in-vis-i-ble. And in one Lord Jesus Christ,

Son of God, the only-be-got-ten, born of the Fa-ther be-fore all a-ges.

Light from light, true God from true God, be-got-ten, not made, one in essence with the Fa - ther; through whom all things were made.

For us and for our salvation, he came down from heav - en, and was in-car-nate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and be-came man.

He was cru-ci-fied for us under Pon-tius Pi-late, and suf-fered, and was bur-ied. He rose on the third day ac-cord-ing to the scrip-tures.

He as-cend-ed into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Fa-ther.

And he is com - ing again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his king-dom will have no end. And in the Ho - ly Spir-it, the Lord, the Creator of Life, who proceeds from the Fa-ther. - To-geth-er with the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glo-ri-fied; he spoke through the proph-ets. In one, ho-ly, catholic, and a-po-stol-ic Church.

 I pro-fess one baptism for the remis-sion of sins. I ex-pect the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. A-men.

Anaphora

Deacon: Let us stand aright, let us stand in awe, let us be attentive to offer the Holy Anaphora in peace.

Response: Mer-cy, peace, a sac-ri-fice of praise.

Celebrant: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God and Father, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

Response: And with your spir - - - it.

Celebrant: Let us lift up our hearts.

Response: We lift them up to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord.

Response:
It is prop - er, it is prop-er and just.

Celebrant: O Eternal Being, Master, Lord, God, Father almighty and adorable it is truly proper and just and befitting the magnificence of your holiness to praise you, to sing to you, to bless you, to worship you, to thank you, to glorify you, the only true God, and to offer you this, our spiritual worship with contrite heart and humble spirit;
for you have granted us the knowledge of your truth.

Who is able to proclaim your might, to make known all your praises, or to recount all your mighty deeds in every age?

Master of all, Lord of heaven and earth and of all creation both visible and invisible,
enthroned in glory yet fathoming the depths,
eternal, invisible, incomprehensible, boundless, and changeless, Father of our great God, Savior, and Lord Jesus Christ,
you are revealed through him who is our hope,
the image of your goodness, and the seal bearing your likeness.

He is the Living Word, True God, Eternal Wisdom, Life, Sanctification, Power, and the True Light through whom the Holy Spirit has been revealed:
the Spirit of truth, the Gift of filial adoption, the Pledge of our future inheritance, the First-fruits of eternal blessings, the Life-creating Power, the Wellspring of sanctification through whom every rational and intelligent creature is empowered to worship you, and to offer you an unending hymn of praise;
for all creation serves you.

Angels, archangels, thrones, dominions, principalities, virtues, powers,
and the many-eyed cherubim praise you.
You are surrounded by the six-winged seraphim;
two wings cover their face, two their feet, and with two they fly, and they call one to another with never-ending and never-silent hymns of praise:

Singing, shouting, crying aloud, and saying the triumphal hymn:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly is the Lord of Hosts.
Heav - en and earth are filled with your glo - - - - - ry;
ho - san - - - - na, ho - san - na in the high - est.
Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord;
ho - san - - - - na, ho - san - na in the high - est.

Celebrant: We sinners also cry out with these blessed powers, O loving and kind Master, and say: Holy are you; truly, all-holy. Immeasurable is the majesty of your holiness. You are revered in all your works; for with righteousness and just judgment you have ordered all things for us. Taking clay from the earth, you formed man and honored him with your own image, O God. You placed him in a delightful paradise and promised him immortal life and the enjoyment of eternal blessings through the observance of your commandments. But man disobeyed you, the true God who created him; he was led astray by the deceit of the Serpent, and by his own transgressions was subjected to death. In your righteous judgment, O God, you banished him from paradise into this world and returned him to the earth from which he had been taken, but provided for him the salvation of rebirth in your Christ.

For you did not turn away from your creature forever, O Good One, nor forget the work of your hands;
rather, you intervened in various ways because of your merciful loving-kindness.
You sent prophets and performed mighty deeds through your holy ones who have pleased you in every generation.
You spoke to us through the mouth of your servants, the prophets, who foretold the salvation which was to come.
You gave the Law as an aid, and appointed angels as guardians.
When the fullness of time had come, you spoke to us through your own Son, the very one through whom you created the ages.

Although he is the reflection of your glory and the express image of your person, sustaining all things by his powerful word,
He did not deem equality with you, God and Father, something to be grasped;
rather, while remaining everlasting God,
he appeared on earth and lived among men.

In becoming incarnate from the holy Virgin, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, conforming himself to the lowliness of our body, that he might conform us to the image of his glory.
For since, through a man, sin entered the world,
and through sin, death,
so it pleased your only-begotten Son,
who is in your bosom, God and Father, to be born of a woman, the holy Theotokos and Ever-Virgin Mary,
to be born under the Law,
to condemn sin in his flesh
so that those who are dead in Adam might be brought to life in him, your Christ.

Living in this world, he gave us precepts for salvation, turned us away from the deceit of idols,
and brought us to know you, true God and Father.

He purchased us for himself as a chosen people, a royal priesthood,
and a holy nation,
cleansing us with water and sanctifying us with the Holy Spirit.
He surrendered himself as a ransom to Death by which we were held captive, sold into slavery under sin.

Descending by the cross into Hades to fulfill all things in himself, he freed us from Death's despair,
and rose on the third day, preparing the way for the resurrection of all flesh from the dead.
Since Corruption could not keep the Author of Life in its clutches, he became the first-fruits of those who have fallen asleep,
the first-born of the dead,
that in all things he might have pre-eminence over all.

Ascending into heaven,
he has taken his seat at the right hand of your majesty on high and will come to reward everyone according to his works.
But he left us these memorials of his saving passion, which we have prepared according to his command.
For, when he was about to go forth to his voluntary, ever-memorable, and life-creating death, on the night when he surrendered himself for the life of the world, he took bread into his holy and all-pure hands,
and presenting it to you, God and Father, he gave thanks, blessed, sanctified, broke, and gave it to his holy disciples and apostles, saying

Take, eat; this is my body which is broken for you for the remission of sins.

Response:

Celebrant:

Likewise, taking the chalice of the fruit of the vine, he mixed it, gave thanks, blessed, sanctified, and gave it to his holy disciples and apostles, saying:

Drink of this all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many for the remission of sins.

Response:

Celebrant:

Do this in remembrance of me,
for as often as you eat this bread and drink this chalice you proclaim my death and profess my resurrection.

Therefore, O Master,
 we also remember his saving passion, the life-creating cross,
 the three-day burial, the resurrection from the dead,
 the ascension into heaven,
 the enthronement at your right hand, God and Father,
 and his glorious and fearsome second coming:

Offering you your own from your own always and everywhere.

Anamnesis Acclamation

Celebrant All-holy Master, since you have allowed us sinners and unworthy servants to minister at your holy altar — not because of our righteousness, for we have done nothing good on earth, but because of your mercy and compassion so richly poured out upon us —
 we have the courage to approach your holy altar.
 As we offer you the holy body and blood of your Christ in this form,
 we pray you and beseech you, O Holy of Holies, that, according to your kind favor,
 your Holy Spirit may come upon us and upon these gifts here offered;
 and bless and sanctify them and show this bread to be truly the precious body of our Lord, God, and Savior Jesus Christ.
 and this chalice to be truly the precious blood of our Lord, God, and Savior Jesus Christ, shed for the life of the world.
 So that all of us who share this one bread and chalice may be united with one another in the communion of the one Holy Spirit, and that none of us partake of the holy body and blood of your Christ for judgment or condemnation.

Rather, may we obtain mercy and grace together with all the saints who have pleased you since time began:
the forefathers, fathers, patriarchs, prophets, apostles, preachers, evangelists, martyrs, confessors, teachers,
and with every just spirit brought to perfection in faith.

Especially with our most holy, most pure, most blessed and glorious Lady, the Theotokos and Ever-Virgin Mary.

Celebrant: Among the first, O Lord, remember our holy father (Name), pope of Rome, our most reverend metropolitan (Name), our God-loving bishop (Name); preserve them for your holy churches in peace, safety, honor, and health for many years as they faithfully impart the word of your truth.

Response:  And re - mem - ber all your peo - ple.

Celebrant: Remember, O Lord, the entire episcopate of the true believers who faithfully impart the word of your truth. Remember also my unworthiness, O Lord, according to the abundance of your mercies. Forgive me every transgression voluntary and involuntary; and despite my sins do not withhold any grace of your Holy Spirit from these gifts offered here.

Remember, O Lord, the presbyterate, the diaconate in Christ, and every holy order; let none of us who surround your holy altar be put to shame. Visit us in your goodness, O Lord. Reveal yourself to us in your rich compassion. Grant us a healthful and agreeable climate and gentle showers upon the earth that it may be fruitful, and crown the cycle of the seasons with your kindness.

By the power of your Holy Spirit, bring an end to schism in the Churches, extinguish the raging of the nations, and quickly put down the upsurges of heresy. Accept us all into your kingdom, showing us to be children of the light and of the day. Grant us your peace and love, O Lord our God, for you have given us everything.

And grant that with one voice and one heart we may glorify and praise your most honored and magnificent name, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Preparation for Communion

Celebrant: May the mercies of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ be with all of you.

Response:  And with your spir - it.

Deacon: Now that we have commemorated all the saints, again and again in peace, let us pray to the Lord.

Response:  Lord, have mer - cy.

Deacon: For the precious gifts offered and consecrated, that our God who loves us all may receive them on his holy, heavenly, and mystical altar as an aroma of spiritual fragrance, and send down upon us in return his divine grace and the gift of the Holy Spirit, let us pray.

Response:  Lord, have mer - cy.

Deacon: Asking for unity in the faith and for communion of the Holy Spirit, let us commit ourselves and one another and our whole life to Christ our God.

Response:  To you, O Lord.

Celebrant: God, the God of our salvation, teach us to give you worthy thanks for the bounties you have bestowed and continue to bestow on us. As you have accepted these gifts, O our God, purify us from every defilement of flesh and spirit. Teach us to grow perfect in holiness through fear of you so that, with a pure testimony of our conscience, we may receive a portion of your holy gifts and be united to the holy body and blood of your Christ. Receiving them worthily, may we have Christ living in our hearts and become temples of your Holy Spirit.

Especially, O our God, let none of us become guilty nor weakened in soul or body by partaking of these awesome and heavenly mysteries of yours unworthily.

Rather, grant, O Lord, that even until our last breath, we may worthily receive a portion of your holy Gifts as a provision for the journey to eternal life, and for an acceptable defense before the fearsome judgment seat of your Christ. Then, together with all the saints who have pleased you since time began, may we become partakers of the eternal blessings which you have prepared for those who love you, O Lord.

And make us worthy, O Master, that we may with confidence and without condemnation dare call you “Father” and say:

Tone 4 podoben: Udivisja Josif

Response:
To you, O Lord.

Celebrant: Master, Lord, Father of mercies, and God of all consolation, bless, sanctify, guard, confirm, and strengthen those who have bowed their heads to you. Turn them away from every evil deed, equip them for every good work, and make them worthy to partake of these your most pure and life-creating mysteries without condemnation for the remission of their sins and for communion of the Holy Spirit.

Through the grace, the mercies, and the loving-kindness of your only-begotten Son with whom you are blessed, together with your all-holy, good, and life-creating Spirit, now and ever and forever.

All: O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, the Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first.

Accept me today as a partaker of your mystical supper, O Son of God; for I will not reveal your Mystery to your enemies, nor will I give you a kiss as did Judas, but like the thief I profess you:

Remember me, O Lord, when you come in your kingdom.
Remember me, O Master, when you come in your kingdom.
Remember me, O Holy One, when you come in your kingdom.

May the partaking of your holy Mysteries, O Lord, be not for my judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of soul and body.

O Lord, I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious body, and your life-giving blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and for life everlasting. Amen.

O God, be merciful to me a sinner.
O God, cleanse me of my sins, and have mercy on me.
O Lord, forgive me for I have sinned without number.

You, O Master of all, grant that the communion of the holy body and blood of your Christ may bring about in us a faith that cannot be confounded, a love that does not pretend, a wisdom that overflows, the healing of our souls and bodies, the defeat of every enemy, the full observance of your commandments, and an acceptable defense before the fearsome judgment seat of your Christ.

For you are our sanctification, and we give glory to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Response:  Lord have mer - - - cy.

The celebrant, going before the ambon and facing East, intones the Ambon Prayer.

Celebrant: O Source of our life, Lord Jesus Christ our God, sanctify the sources of the waters. You made water a deliverance of those held captive, a remission of debts, a forgiveness of sins, a washing of rebirth, a gift of adoption as your children and a garment of incorruption, in which you enlighten and save your people. You manifested yourself as our God. Deem us worthy to celebrate the feast of your holy Theophany in joy and with a pure conscience. For all glory, honor, and worship belong to you and to your eternal Father and to your all-holy, good, and life-creating Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Response:

The Great Blessing of Water follows the Ambon Prayer.

*And while the deacon is saying the Litany, the Priest says this Prayer to himself secretly.
If there be no deacon, the Priest reads the prayer (including Amen) secretly after the Litany is concluded, and before the Prayer of Blessing.*

O Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son, who are in the bosom of the Father; O true God, Fountain of life and immortality; O Light from Light that came into the world to enlighten it: Illumine our mind by your Holy Spirit, and accept us who are offering majesty and thanksgiving to you for your wondrous and mighty works which are from the ages; and for your saving Providence in these latter times, in which you have clothed yourself in our weak and poor substance; and, condescending to the estate of a servant (even though you are King of all), permitted yourself to be baptized in the Jordan by the hand of a servant, that you, O Sinless One, having sanctified the nature of water, might lead us into re-birth by water and the Spirit, restoring to us our first freedom. Celebrating the memory of this divine mystery, we pray to you, O Master and Lover of us all. Sprinkle upon us, your unworthy servants, according to your divine promise, pure water—the gift of your deep compassion—that the prayer of us sinners over this water may be acceptable through your grace, and that through it your blessing may be granted to us and to all your faithful people, to the glory of your holy and adorable Name. For to you is due all glory, honor, and worship, together with your Father who is without beginning and your holy, good, and lifegiving Spirit, now and ever and forever. Amen.

The priest may say the following prayer out loud:

Celebrant: O Trinity, transcendent in essence, in goodness, and in divinity, almighty, invisible, and incomprehensible, who watch over all; O Creator of intelligent beings, of natures endowed with speech; O Goodness of utter and unapproachable brilliance, who enlighten everyone who comes into the world: enlighten me also, your unworthy servant! Illumine the eyes of my mind, that I may venture to praise your immeasurable goodness and your might; let my supplication on behalf of these people be wholly acceptable, so that my sins may not prevent the descent of the Holy Spirit upon this place; that without condemnation, I may be permitted to cry out to you and say: “We glorify you, O Master and Lover of us all, almighty and eternal King! We glorify you, O only-begotten Son, born of a mother without a father and of a father without a mother; for in the preceding feast we have seen you as a babe, and in this present feast as perfect man appearing as our perfect God.

Today is the time of feasting, and the ranks of saints and angels have joined us in celebration; today the grace of the all-holy Spirit in the likeness of a dove comes down upon the waters; today shines the Sun that never sets, and the world sparkles with the light of the Lord! Today the moon is bright, together with the earth in the glowing radiance of its beams; today the brilliant stars adorn the universe with the splendor of their twinkling; today the clouds from heaven shed upon the human race a shower of justice; today the Uncreated One willingly permits the hands of his creatures to be laid upon him; today the Prophet and Forerunner approaches the Lord and, standing before him in awe, witnesses the condescension of God towards us; today through the presence of the Lord, the waters of the river Jordan are changed into remedies; today the whole universe is refreshed with mystical streams; today the sins of the human race are blotted out by the waters of the river Jordan; today paradise has been opened to all, and the Sun of Righteousness has shone upon us; today, at the hands of Moses, the bitter water is changed into sweetness by the presence of the Lord!

Today we are delivered from the ancient mourning, and like a new Israel, we are saved; today we are delivered from darkness, and, through the light of the knowledge of God, we are illumined; today the darkness of the world vanishes with the appearing of our God; today the whole creation is brightened from on high; today errors are destroyed and a way of salvation is prepared for us by the coming of the Lord; today the inhabitants of heaven rejoice with those of the earth; and the inhabitants of earth with those of heaven; today the noble and eloquent assembly of the faithful rejoices; today the Lord comes to be baptized, so that the human race may be lifted up; today the One who never has to bow, inclines himself before his servant, so that he may release our chains; today we have acquired the kingdom of heaven; indeed, the kingdom of heaven that has no end.

Today land and sea share in the joy of the world, and the world is filled with rejoicing. The waters beheld you, O Lord; the waters beheld you and they trembled. The river Jordan turns back on its course as it beholds the fire of the Godhead coming down upon it and entering it in the flesh. The river Jordan turns back in its course as it beholds the Holy Spirit descending in the likeness of a dove, and hovering over you. The river Jordan turns back in its course as it beholds the Invisible made visible, the Creator existing in the flesh, and the Master in the likeness of a servant. The river Jordan turns back in its course, and the mountains leap for joy as they behold God in the flesh. And the clouds give voice and are filled with awe by the One who is coming, Light of Light, true God of true God; the One who, in the river Jordan, has drowned to death sin, the thorn of error, and the bonds of hell, and granted the baptism of salvation to the world. So also I, your unworthy and sinful servant overcome with fear, proclaim your great wonders: and I cry reverently to you and say:

With the triple candle, the priest makes three times the sign of the Cross in the water, saying each time the following:

Great are you, O Lord, and wonderful are your works; no word suffices to give praise to your wonders.

Then the priest says:

By your will you brought forth all things from nothingness into being; by your might you control creation, and by your providence you govern the world. You created all things from four elements, and crowned the cycle of the year with four seasons. The spiritual powers tremble before you. The sun praises you, the moon glorifies you, the stars serve you. Light obeys you, the depths tremble before you, and the springs adore you. You spread out the heavens like a tent. You established the earth upon the waters. You fringed the seas with beaches of sand. You poured forth air for breathing. The angelic powers serve you; the ranks of archangels worship you; the many-eyed cherubim and the six-winged seraphim stand before you or hover over you, yet they dare not gaze at your unapproachable glory. Although you are God, boundless, indescribable, and without beginning, you came upon earth, and taking the likeness of a servant, became like one of us. Because of the depth of your compassion, O Master, you could not bear to see mankind under the tyranny of the Devil, and so you came to save us. We profess your goodness; we proclaim your mercy, and we do not conceal your graciousness. You freed all human offspring by sanctifying the virginal womb through your birth. All creation praises your appearance, for you, our God, came upon earth by sending down your Holy Spirit from heaven, and you crushed the head of every dragon nesting in it.

Three times the priest breathes over the water in the form of a cross, each time saying:

O Loving King, come now and through the descent of the Holy Spirit sanctify this water.

Grant it the grace of redemption and the blessing of the Jordan. Make it a fount of incorruptibility, a gift of sanctification, a redemption of sins, a healing potion for illness, and a destroyer of demons. Make it immune to hostile powers, and fill it with angelic power so that all who drink and receive of it may be purified in soul and body, cured of ills, sanctified in their homes, and given every befitting grace.

For you are our God, who through water and the Spirit rejuvenated our nature grown old by sin. You are our God, who drowned sin in the waters at the time of Noah. You are our God, who, on the sea and at the hands of Moses, delivered the Hebrews from the bondage of Pharaoh. You are our God, who split the rock in the wilderness, so that the waters gushed out, and the valleys overflowed, and the people were satisfied. You are our God, who, with fire and water, and at the hands of Elijah, delivered Israel from the errors of Baal.

The priest makes the sign of the cross in the water three times with his hand, each time saying:

Wherefore, O Master, sanctify this water by your Holy Spirit.

Then the priest prays:

Grant sanctification, blessing, cleansing, and health to all who touch it, are blessed with it, or who partake of it. O Lord, save your servants, our civil authorities. Keep them in peace within your protective shadow, granting them all salutary requests and eternal life. May your all-holy name be glorified by the elements, by men, by angels, by all that is visible or invisible, together with the Father and the Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Response:

Celebrant:

Peace be to all.

Response:

Deacon: Bow your heads to the Lord!

Response:
To you, O Lord.

Celebrant: Incline your ear, O Lord, and hear us. You sanctified the water when you consented to be baptized in the Jordan; now bless us who through the bowing of our heads signify our servitude. Grant that we be filled with your sanctification by the partaking of this water, and let it be for the healing of our souls and bodies, O Lord.

For you are our sanctification, and to you do we give glory, thanksgiving, and worship, and to your eternal Father and your all-holy, gracious, and life-giving Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Response:
A - men.

Holding the handcross in both hands, the priest makes the sign of the cross directly in the water, meanwhile singing the following Troparion in Tone 1:

At your bap - tism in the Jor - dan, O Lord, wor - ship of the Trin - i - ty was re - vealed; for the Fa - ther's voice bore wit - ness to you, calling you his be - lov - ed Son, and the Spir - it in the form of a dove con - firmed the truth of these words. O Christ God, you ap - peared and enlightened the world. Glo - ry to you!

The priest, twice more, makes the sign of the cross in the water while the people sing the Troparion. The priest takes some of the blessed water, and, facing the west (the people), he holds a handcross in his left hand and a cluster of basil in his right hand (or some sprinkling instrument).

First the clergy, according to rank, then the faithful come forward to kiss the cross and receive a blessing from the priest with the basil dipped into a container holding the newly blessed water.

During the sprinkling of the people with Jordan water, the following is sung in Tone 6:

Let us praise in song, O faith-ful, the greatness of the fa-vor of God to us. For hav-ing become man because of our trans - gres - sions, he is pu - rified in the Jordan for our puri-fi - ca - tion. He, the only pure and spot-less One, who sanc-ti-fies me and the wa - ters, and crush - es the heads of the dragons in the wa - ters. Where-fore,

O broth-ers and sis - ters, let us take of that wa - ter with joy!

For the grace of the Holy Spirit is invisibly im - part - ed to all who, in faith, take there - of, by Christ our God, who is al - so the Sav - ior of our souls.

Deacon: Let us pray to the Lord.

Response:

Lord, have mer - cy.

Celebrant: Lord Jesus Christ our God, you blessed the five loaves in the wilderness and fed the five thousand. Likewise bless these loaves, wheat, wine, and oil, and multiply them in this city and through your whole world. Sanctify your faithful who will partake of them, for you yourself bless and sanctify all things, O Christ our God, and we give glory to you with your eternal Father and your all-holy, good, and life-creating Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Psalm 33

I will bless the Lord at all times,
his praise always on my lips;

in the Lord my soul shall make its boast.
The humble shall hear and be glad.

Glorify the Lord with me.
Together let us praise his name.

I sought the Lord and he answered me;
from all my terrors he set me free.

Look towards him and be radiant;
let your faces not be abashed.

This poor man called, the Lord heard him and rescued him from all his distress.

The angel of the Lord is encamped, around those who revere him, to rescue them.

Taste and see that the Lord is good.
He is happy who seeks refuge in him.

Revere the Lord, you his saints.
They lack nothing, those who revere him.

Strong lions suffer want and go hungry
but those who seek the Lord lack no blessing.

Celebrant: The blessing of the Lord be upon you through his grace and loving-kindness, always, now and ever and forever.
