

Vesper Propers, September 1

The Beginning of the Church Year (“Indiction”). The First Ecumenical Council (325) decreed that the Church’s year should begin on September 1. The lunar month corresponding to September on the Jewish calendar was the beginning of the civil year (cf Exodus 12:2); it was at this time that our Lord Jesus went into the synagogue at Nazareth and read the words of the prophet Isaiah, “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me...to proclaim ‘the acceptable year of the Lord.’” (Isaiah 61:1-2; Luke 4: 16-21).

Our venerable father Simeon the Stylite and his mother. Simeon lived near Antioch in Syria. He was a monk, who lived for many years standing atop a column (in Greek, a stylus), hence he received the nickname “Stylite.” His life and admirable conversation were remarkable. (459)

Synaxis of the Most Holy Mother of God of Miasena.

The holy martyr Aeithalas, who suffered in Persia. (380)

The forty holy women martyred with their instructor, Ammon the deacon, during the time of the emperor Licinius at Heraclea in Thrace (313).

The holy martyr Callista and her two brothers, Evodius and Hermogenes, who were martyred in Nicomedia. (309)

The just Joshua, son of Nun, servant of the Lord. When the hand of Moses was placed on him, he was filled with the spirit of wisdom. He led the people of Israel after the death of Moses through the Jordan River to the promised land.

On Mount Si - nai you gave stone tab - lets. To - day in Nazareth, you

Cantor: (Tone 5) Let your ears be attentive (on 7) to the voice of my pleading.

Re-joyce, O wo-man full of grace, ev-er-vir-gin The-o-to-kos, har-bor and protectress of the hu-man race. The Sav-ior of the universe re-ceived flesh from you, for you are the only one to be both moth-er and vir-gin, for-ev-er blessed, for-ev-er glo-ri-fied. In-ter-cede with Christ our God that he may grant peace to the whole world.

but af-ter death, however, you have left your pil-lar. O heav-enly man and earth-ly an-gel, ev-er-watch-ful beacon to the whole world, O venera-ble Sim-e-on, pray for our sal-va-tion.

Cantor: If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, Lord, who would survive?
(on 6) But with you is found forgiveness: for this we revere you.

O ven-er-a-ble Fa-ther, e-ven if the pil-lar could talk, it would nev-er stop proclaiming your toils, your la-bors, and your weep-ing.
E-ven though it held you, it was sus-tained by your tears, wa-tered as a tree.
At your en-dur-ance the an-gels crowd a-bout, peo-ple stand in awe, and the de-mons trem-ble. O venera-ble Sim-e-on, pray for our sal-va-tion.

Cantor: My soul is waiting for the Lord. I count on his word.
(on 5) My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak.

 (on 4) and Israel on the Lord. Tone 2 samohlasen
