Come all na-tions, learn the power of the awe-some mys-t'ry! Christ our Sav-ior, the Word who was in the be-gin - ning, who was crucified for us and bur-ied will-ing - ly, is ri - sen from the dead to save the u - ni-verse.
Come, let us wor - ship him.

Cantor: O praise him with sound of trumpet, praise him with lute and harp.

Lord, the guards re-count-ed all your won-ders, but the vain Sanhedrin filled their hands with bribes and ordered them to conceal your res - ur - rec - tion, which the whole world glo - ri - fies. Have mer - cy on us, O Lord.

Cantor: Praise him with timbrel and dance, praise him with strings and pipes.

All things are filled with joy at the ex - pe - rience of the res - ur - rec - tion, for Mary Mag-da - lene came to the tomb and found an an - gel in daz-zling gar-ments seat-ed on the stone, say - ing:

Why do you seek the liv-ing a-mong the dead? He is not here; he has been raised up. He goes before you to Gal - i - lee as he said.

Cantor: O praise him with resounding cymbals, praise him with clashing of cymbals, let everything that lives and that breathes give praise to the Lord.

O Mas-ter, Lov - er of us all, in your light, we see light.
For when you rose from the dead you be - stowed sal - va - tion on the hu-man race so that all creation might glorify you, the on - ly sin - less One.
Have mer - cy on us, O Mas - ter.
