

Matins Propers
Third Sunday of the Great Fast

Supplement for The Order of Matins: Sundays and Feasts, 2006

The Troparion of the Resurrection in the Tone of the week is sung twice. Then:

Cantor: (Tone 1) Glory...

Troparion of the Cross - Tone 1

Save your peo - ple, O Lord, and bless your in - her - i - tance. Grant vic - to - ry to your Church o - ver e - vil, and pro - tect your peo - ple by your cross.

Cantor: Glory... now and ever...

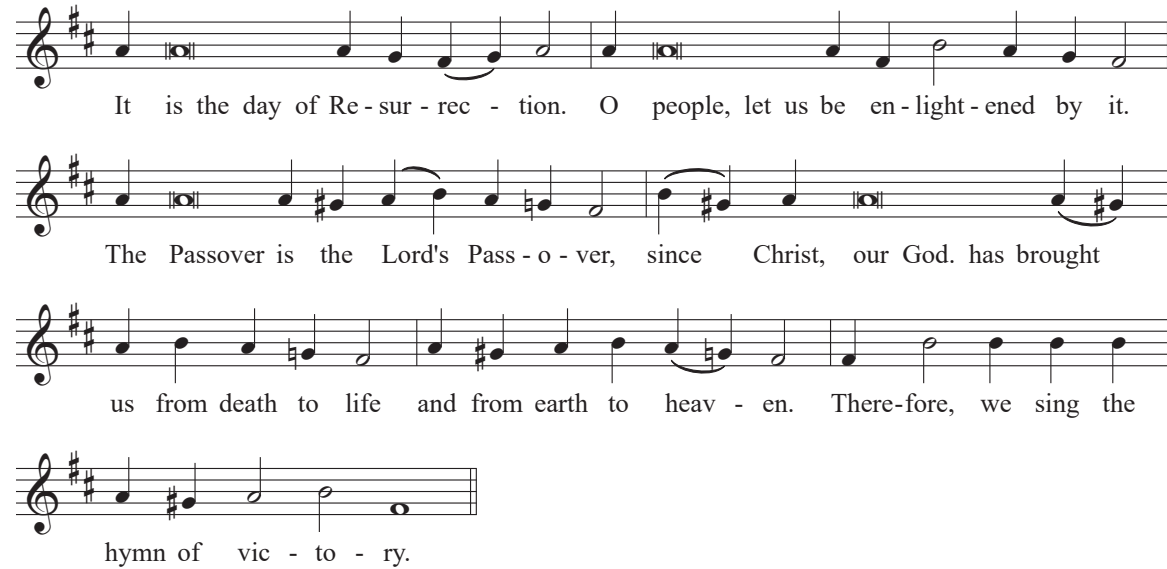

Festal theotokion in the same tone (Tone 1, p. 69).

The service continues as usual for Sunday. After Psalm 50, the penitential stichera are sung (p. 317).

Canon

Ode 1

Irmos - Tone 1 samopodoben

It is the day of Re-sur-rec-tion. O people, let us be en-light-ened by it.

The Passover is the Lord's Pass-o-ver, since Christ, our God, has brought us from death to life and from earth to heav-en. There-fore, we sing the hymn of vic-to-ry.

Refrain

Glo-ry to you, our God, glo-ry to you.

It is a festive day in heaven; for Death is wiped out by the Resurrection of Christ. Once again, life springs forth, and Adam is raised and exults with joy. Let us all praise the victory of the Lord. Refrain

This is the day on which we bow before the life-giving Cross. Come, let us venerate it; resplendent in the light of the Resurrection, it is given to us; let us kiss it in the joy of the Spirit. Refrain

Theotokion - in the same tone

To-day the word of the Proph-et is ful-filled: Be-hold, we bow be-fore your foot-stool, O Lord; hav-ing tas-ted the Tree of sal-va-tion, we have been freed from our pas-sions and sin, by the pray'rs of the

The-o-to-kos.

The service of Matins continues with the Litany of Supplication (p. 45).

cap - tives. When his Moth - er, the Virgin, saw him on the Cross, she sighed and said: A - las, O my be - lov - ed Child!
 You sur - pass every mortal in beau - ty; yet you are now without charm or at - trac - - - tion, hav - ing nei - ther grace, nor form, nor life;
 A - las, O Light of my eyes, a sword pier - ces my heart, and I suf - fer inward - ly to see you so. I sing and praise your Pas - sion,
 I ven - erate your in - fin - ite mer - - - cy, O long - suf - fer - ing
 Lord, glo - ry to you.

Cantor

Now and ev - er and for - ev - er. A - men.

O lofty Cross of my Lord, show me the divine image of your beauty. Grant that I may adore your most pure glory. I speak to you and surround you with reverence as if you were alive. Refrain

May all join their voices on earth as in heaven to praise the holy Cross placed before the eyes of all. Christ was nailed upon it in his immolated body. Let us kiss it in the joy of the Spirit.

Glo - ry to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Spir - it.

O Divinity in three Persons, unity of essence, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, sharing the same power and will forever; watch over the world and grant it peace.

Now and ev - er and for - ev - er. A - men.

O spouseless Virgin, without seed and in a most pure manner, you conceived the Creator of the universe, Christ our God; intercede with him to grant peace to the world.

Katavasia - Tone 6 common melody

In days of old, Mo - ses prefigured your precious and ho - ly Cross, O Christ our God, when, with his wood - en staff, he o - pened the Red Sea and let the people of Is - ra - el pass through, as they sang the hymn of vic - to - ry to the Lord.

Ode 3

Irmos

Come, let us partake of a new drink, not mir - ac - u - lous - ly pro-duced from the bar - ren rock, but from the foun - tain of im - mor - tal - i - ty, spring-ing up from the tomb of Christ. In him is our firm strength.

Refrain

Glo - ry to you, our God, glo - ry to you.

Come, let us all sing a new song to celebrate the defeat of Hades; for, coming from the tomb, Christ has broken the power of Death and saved the world. Refrain

Come, let us all draw in faith, not from the fountain for corruption, but from the source of light; let us venerate the Cross of Christ in which we are glorified. Refrain

As we now venerate the cross which Moses formerly prefigured with his hands, we put the spiritual Amalek to flight, O Christ our Master; and we ourselves are saved. Refrain

Let us purify our eyes and lips that we may sing in the joy of our hearts; let us venerate the Cross of the Lord in faith, resounding with our joy.

Glo - ry to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Spir - it.

I glorify the one Divinity in three Persons, without beginning and not divided, Father, Son, and life-giving Spirit, in whom we are baptized.

Cantor: Glory...

As soon as the wood of the Cross had been set up, O Christ, you shook the foun-da-tions of death; Ha-des has - tened to swallow the One whom it would have to give up in fear. O ho - ly God, you have shown us sal - va - tion, and we ren - der glo - ry to you: O Son of God, have mer - cy on us.

Cantor: Now and ever...

O The - otokos and bless - ed Vir - gin, pray to your Son, Christ our God,

We bow to your Cross, O Mas - ter, and we glo - ri - fy your ho - ly re - sur - rec - tion.

The priest, deacon, and faithful come forward to venerate the cross while the following stichera are sung. As many stichera are sung as the time of veneration permits.

Tone 2 samohlasen

①
 Come, O faith - ful, let us bow before the life - giv - ing Cross, on which Christ, all suf-fer-ing; de-liver us from our pas-sions and save our souls.

Cantor: (Tone 2) Now and ever...

The service continues with the Sunday theokion in Tone 2, "You are truly most blessed..." (p. 40).

The Veneration of the Holy Cross

During the singing of the Great Doxology, the priest, fully vested, incenses the cross (which was placed on the holy table before Vespers, in place of the Gospel book) three times. Then he takes the cross and, preceded by two candle-bearers, processes through the northern door and stands before the holy doors, facing east. At the end of the Trisagion following the Great Doxology, the deacon (or priest) exclaims:

Deacon: Wisdom! Be attentive!

Then the priest places the cross on the tetrapod as the people sing:

Troparion of the Cross - Tone 1 (three times)

Save your peo-ple, O Lord, and bless your in-her-i-tance. Grant vic-to-ry to your Church o-ver e-vil, and pro-ject your peo-ple by your cross.

The priest censes around the tetrapod three times, while people sing three times:

who per-mit-ted himself to be nailed to the Cross and is ris-en from the dead for the sal-va-tion of our souls.

Ode 4

Irmos

Let Ha-bak-kuk, speak-ing in be-half of God, stand with us at the di-vine watch;
let him show us the brilliant an-gel who pro-claims: To-day, sal-va-tion comes to the world; for Christ, be-ing al-might-y is ris-en.

Refrain

Glo-ry to you, our God, glo-ry to you.

Behold, Christ is risen! said the angel of the Lord to the myrrh-bearing women: Do not weep, but go and say to the apostles: Today, salvation comes to the world; the tyranny of the Enemy is ended in the tomb. Refrain

Today we have the joyous veneration of your life-giving Cross as a foretaste of your holy Passion, which you endure to save us, O christ our God and almighty Savior. Refrain

Joy reigns on earth and in heaven today, for the sign of the Cross has shone over the world: its thrice-blessed image is a fountain of eternal joy for those who venerate it. Refrain

What thanksgiving shall we offer you, O Christ? For you have granted us to bow before your Cross; on it, you poured out your precious blood, and your flesh was pierced with nails. As we now venerate it, it is to you that we give thanks.

Glo - ry to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Spir - it.

I praise and glorify the three Persons of the one undivided divinity, the unity of essence of the eternal Father, the Son and spirit, eternal and royal majesty, sharing the same throne and lordship

Now and ev - er and for - ev - er. A - men.

You alone among all women, O most pure Virgin, appear as the object of our admiration: for you renewed nature and its laws when you conceived without seed and remained a virgin as before; it is God himself whom you have borne.

Katavasia

When the sun be - held you suffer - ing on the Cross, O al - might - y God, it was seized with fear, and it held back the light of its rays. In fear, all creation praised your long - suf - fring, and the earth was filled with your

Irmos

Let us rise at ear - ly dawn and bring to our Mas - ter a hymn in - stead of myrrh, and we shall ssee Christ, the Sun of right - eous - ness, who en - light - ens the life of all.

Refrain

Glo - ry to you, our God, glo - ry to you.

You have risen from the tomb, O Light that knows no evening, to give immortality to the world; you banished the sorrow of death from the ends of the earth in your supreme goodness, O Lord. Refrain

Cleansed by abstinence, let us hasten with fervor to kiss and glorify the most holy wood on which Christ was crucified and saved the world in his goodness. Refrain

Today the angels exult with joy in heaven at the veneration of your Cross; on it, O Christ, you overcame the hosts of demons, and you saved the human race. Refrain

The Church now possesses a Tree of life as a second paradise, O Lord; it is your life-giving Cross; by eating its fruits, we share in eternal life.

Glo - ry to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Spir - it.

I praise the triple eternity and the one essence of the Divinity, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one light in three rays, united without confusion, and equal in majesty.

Now and ev - er and for - ev - er. A - men.

You gave birth according to nature, yet you surpassed its laws; for you alone conceived without seed. Your childnirth is ineffable and surpasses our understanding, O most pure Virgin.

Katavasia

Let us rise at ear - y dawn to praise you, O Sav - ior of the world; for your Cross has brought us peace. Through it, you re-newed the hu - man race whom you led to the light that knows no eve - - - ning.

Ode 6

Irmos

You have de - scend - ed into the realm of Death, O Christ, and have bro - ken third day like Jo - nah from the whale.

Tone 4 podoben: Jako doblja

Let our songs of praise re - sound, and with our hymns, let us ex-tol the pre - cious Cross, as we cry out when we kiss it: By your pow - er,

O ven - er - a - ble Cross, sanc - ti - fy our souls and bod - ies;

pro - tect from the wounds of the En - e - my the faith - ful who bow be - fore you.

Cantor (on 1)

O praise him with resounding cym - bals, praise him with clashing of cym - bals.

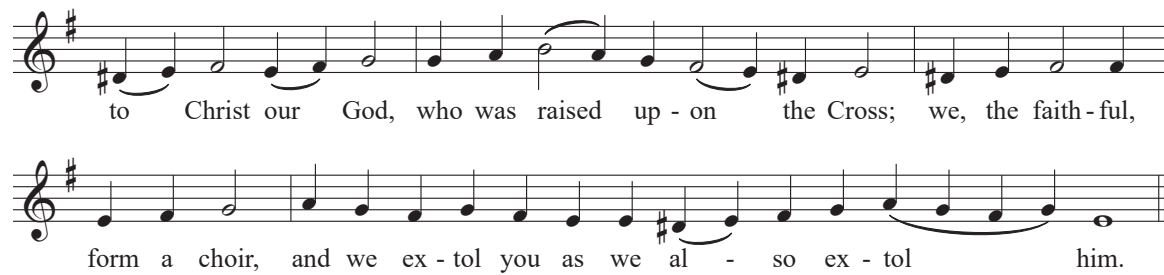

Let everything that lives and that breathes give praise to the Lord.

Repeat "Let our songs of praise resound..."

Cantor (on A)

God is our King from time past; the Giv - er of help through all the land.

to Christ our God, who was raised up - on the Cross; we, the faith - ful, form a choir, and we ex - tol you as we al - so ex - tol him.

Hymns of Light

“Holy is the Lord our God” is sung in the Tone of the Week, and the Sunday Resurrection Gospel is read. Then continue with the Hymns of Light from the Triodion:

Glory...

Today we see the precious Cross of Christ placed before us; let us venerate it in joy as we bow before it; and let us beseech the Lord who was crucified on it, that he may grant us the grace to contemplate his holy and glorious Resurrection.

Now and ever...

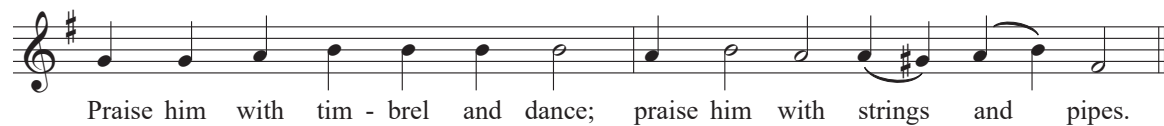

We bow before the Cross, O Virgin, where your Son stretched out his most pure hands for our salvation. Grant us peace that we may contemplate the holy Passion which saved us, and the bright day of the Pasch of the Lord, which brings joy to all the world.

Psalms of Praise

The Psalms of Praise are sung in the Tone of the Week, with the first five stichera of the Resurrection. Then we continue with the following stichera from the Triodion:

Cantor (on 2)

Tone 4

Praise him with tim - brel and dance; praise him with strings and pipes.

Refrain

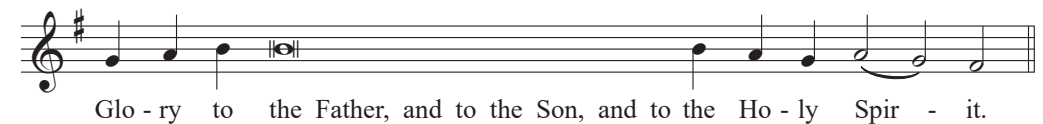

Glo - ry to you, our God, glo - ry to you.

Trampling down death, O Christ, you have risen like an almighty king, calling us forth from the depths of Hades, and leading us to the land of immortality and to the happiness of the kingdom of heaven. Refrain

O faithful, let us cry out in joy to our God, clapping our hands with divine praise; let us kiss the Cross of the Lord; it is a fountain of holiness for the whole world. Refrain

The word of the psalmist is fulfilled: Behold, we bow before your footstool, before the wood of the precious Cross, O almighty Lord. Refrain

The wood which Jeremiah, in his prophetic lamentation, saw mixed with your bread, was your Cross, O merciful Lord; we kiss it and venerate your chains and your tomb, the lance and the nails.

Glo - ry to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Spir - it.

I praise the unity in three Persons, the trinity having one nature; I venerate the three as one God, as the light of a triple sun: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Now and ev - er and for - ev - er. A - men.

O wonder, greater than all the wonders of old! The spotless Virgin gave birth to the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world; intercede with him unceasingly for those who praise your name.

Katavasia

Stretch - ing out his hands in the bel - ly of the whale, Jo - nah pre - fig - ured your ho - ly Cross; and com - ing forth from the sea mon - ster, he was saved by your sov - 'reign pow - er, O Word.

Kontakion - Tone 7

No long - er does the flaming sword guard the gates of E - den, for the tree of the Cross has come to quench it won-drous-ly. The sting of death and the victory of Hades have been driv - en out; for you, O my Savior, stood and called out to those in Ha - des: En - ter a - gain in - to par - a - dise!

Ikos Pilate set up three crosses on Golgotha, two for the thieves and one for the Lord of life. Seeing this, Hades asked its servants: Who has driven this spear into my heart? A wooden lance has pierced me, and I am torn apart. What pain has penetrated my womb and my heart, what sorrow stabs my spirit? I am forced to give up Adam and his children, those whom I had received from the forbidden Tree, for a new Tree leads them to enter again into Paradise.

Ode 7

Irmos

God, who saved the three youths from the fur - nace, has be - come man

You descended into the tomb, O Giver of life and our God, and you broke open the locks and bolts, raising the dead who sing in joy: Glory to your Resurrection, O Christ, our almighty Savior. Refrain

Your tomb, O Christ, is a life-giving fountain for me; you, the Master of life, entered and cried to those in the tombs: Be loosened from your chains, for I have come that the world might be saved. Refrain

May all the trees of the forest rejoice and sing as they see the Tree of the Cross today filled with honor; for Christ was exalted on it, as David the prophet foretold. Refrain

Having once found death through a tree, I now find in you the Tree of life; O precious Cross which bore Christ, my invincible protection and my strength against demons. Bowing before you today, I cry out: sanctify me in your glory. Refrain

Rejoice and dance for joy, O holy Church of God, who bows today before the thrice-blessed wood of the holy Cross of Christ; hosts of angels in heaven stand trembling before it.

Glo - ry to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Spir - it.

I bow before you, O Trinity of Persons, one and holy Divinity of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one power, one kingdom, who reign over all the world.

Now and ev - er and for - ev - er. A - men.

You are truly the exalted mountain where Christ dwelled, as David sang, O Virgin; through you, we are able to ascend from earth to heaven, becoming children of God in the Holy Spirit.

Katavasia

O Vir - gin The - o - to - kos, you tru - ly gave birth with - out seed a - bove all for - ev - - - er.

Katavasia

Thrown in - to the den of li - ons, the proph - et Dan - iel stretched out his hands in the form of the Cross, and he did not be - come a prey to their teeth, for he blessed Christ for - ev - - - er.

The Canticle of the Theotokos is sung (p. 34).

Ode 9

Irmos

Shine in splen - dor, O new Je - ru - sa - lem! For the glo - ry of the Lord is ris - en up - on you, O Si - on; sing with joy and re - joice! And you, pure Moth - er of God, re - joice in the re - sur - rec - tion of your Son.

Refrain

Glo - ry to you, our God, glo - ry to you.

and suf - fered as an - y mor - tal; but his pass - sion clothed his mor - tal - i - ty with the splendor of in - cor - rup - tion. He is the only blessed One, God of our fa - thers, and is wor - thy of all praise.

Refrain

Glo - ry to you, our God, glo - ry to you.

You have come forth from the tomb, as if from sleep, on the third day; your divine power cast down the guardians of Hades. You awakened our first parents, for you are the God of our fathers, and to you alone is due blessing and great glory. Refrain

O people, let us sing and dance for joy on this day when we venerate the Cross; for upon it was nailed Christ, whom we now glorify: He is the God of our fathers, and to him alone is due blessing and great glory. Refrain

You made an instrument of death to be a key of life for the world; now sanctify those who adore your venerable Cross, for you are the God of our fathers, and to you alone is due blessing and great glory. Refrain

O Jesus, you alone are compassionate; enlighten and sanctify those who bow in faith before your Cross and your divine Passion; for you are the God of our fathers, and to you alone is due blessing and great glory.

Glo - ry to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Spir - it.

I praise the unity in three Persons who reign in God; the Father is light, the Son is light, and the Holy Spirit is also light, shining with the light of three rays, one light undivided.

Now and ev - er and for - ev - er. A - men.

You are the one whom the prophets foretold in many ways; the gate whom God alone has crossed, the holy land and the adorned ark; for you have given birth to Christ Jesus, the God of our fathers to whom is due great glory.

Katavasia

The One who saved the Youths in the fur - nace has tak - en flesh and come up - on earth; by al - low - ing himself to be nailed to the Cross, he grants us sal - va - tion; for he is the God of our fa - thers and to him a - lone is due bles - sing and great glo - - - ry.

Ode 8

Irmos

This is that cho - sen and ho - ly day, Feast of feasts, most sol - emn day, on - ly king and lord of all Sab - baths, on which we ev - er praise Christ.

Refrain

Glo - ry to you, our God, glo - ry to you.

For whom do you bear myrrh? Whom do you seek? Said the resplendent angel at the tomb. Christ our God is risen, raising from Hades the whole human race. Refrain

Rejoice, O divine and thrice-blessed Cross, the light of our darkness; you enlighten the four corners of the world with the brightness of the Resurrection. Make us worthy to contemplate in faith the Pasch of the Lord. Refrain

Today the Cross of Christ, the divine fountain of fragrance, pours out its sweet aroma; it is the wood that blossoms forth life. Let us breathe in this pleasing scent of the Divinity, which we adore forever. Refrain Prefiguring your Cross, O Christ, Jacob blessed Joseph and bowed before the top of his divine staff, seeing in advance the awesome scepter of your royalty, which we now adore in faith forever.

Let us bless the Father, Son, and Ho - ly Spir - it, Lord.

I glorify the one substance in three Persons, without confusion, and I do not divide the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; for there is only one God forever.

Now and ev - er and for - ev - er. A - men.

O only Virgin who gave birth without a spouse to Christ our Savior, O Mary, you preserved the seal of virginity; and we, the faithful, extol you forever.

Let us praise, bless, and worship the Lord, sing - ing and highly ex - alt - ing him
