Troparion of the Vigil - Tone 4

At that time, Mar-y regis-tered in Beth-le-hem with the el - der Joseph, who was of the house of Da - vid. She had con-ceived with - out seed and was with child, and her time to give birth had come. They found no room at the inn, but the cave be - came a pleas-ant pal - ace for the Queen. Christ is born to raise up the like - ness that had fall - en.

Cantor

Now and ev - er and for - ev - er. A - men.

Theotokion of the First Hour - Tone 4

What shall we call you, O full of grace? A hea - ven, for you have borne the Sun of Jus - tice? A par - adise, for you have brought forth the Flower of im-mor-ta - li - ty? A vir - gin, for you have re - mained un - de - filed? A mo - ther, holding in holy holy arms the Son who is God of all? In - tercede with him for the sal - va - tion of our souls.

Stichera

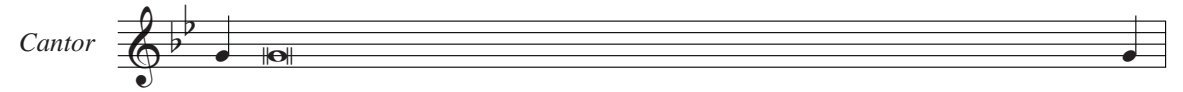

Stichera of the first Royal Hour of the Nativity - Tone 8 samohlasen

Make read - y, O Beth - le - hem: pre-pare your-self, O man - ger.
Let the cave show its wel - come. The truth has come, the shad-ow has passed a - way; born of a Vir-gin, God has ap-peared to all, formed as we are and making our flesh god - like. There-fore Ad - am and Eve are re-newed, and they call out: Lov - ing-kindness has ap - peared on earth to save our hu - man race.

Tone 3 samohlasen

Cantor

God comes from Mount Teman, the Holy One from an overshadowed moun-tain.

I have heard your re - nown and feared.

Sticheron - Tone 3 samohlasen

Now the proph - e - cy draws near to its ful - fill - ment, which mys - tic - 'ly said:

"And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Ju - - dah, where the cave was pre-pared, you are not least a-mong prin - ces, for out of you shall come forth unto me in the flesh a Rul-er of na - tions. Christ our God is born of a Vir - gin Maid-en, and as a shep - herd he shall tend his people, the new Is - ra - el. Let us all give him glo - ry.

and for - ev - er. A - men.

Doxastikon - Tone 8 samohlasen

Jo-seph spoke to the Vir - gin: What is this, O Mary, that I see in you?
I fail to understand and am a - mazed, and my mind is dis - mayed.
De - part from me quick-ly and qui - et - ly. What is this, O Mary, that I see in you? In - stead of honor, you have brought me shame; In - stead of joy, sorrow; in - stead of praise, re - proof. No long - er shall I bear the reproach of peo - ple. I re - ceived you from the priests of the temple, as one blame-less be - fore the Lord. And what is this that I now see?

Kontakion of the Vigil - Tone 3

Come, you peo - ple, bear - ers of Christ, and see won - ders that overwhelm every mind with as - ton - ish - ment. In rev - erent worship let us sing prais-es.

To-day a maid-en great with child comes to Beth-le-hem to give birth to the Lord.

The choirs of an - gels go be - fore her. See - ing this, Joseph, her be-trothed, cried out: What is this strange mystery in you, O vir - gin? How shall you bring forth a child, calf up - on whom the yoke has nev - er come?

Theotokion of the Sixth Hour - Tone 4

Since we have no one in whom to con-fide, be - cause of our many sins, O

Vir - gin The - o - to - kos, int - te - cde with the one who was born of you;
 for a moth - er's prayer is a powerful means for obtaining the Mas - ter's fa - vor.
 You are most wor - thy of ven - er - a - tion, so do not turn away from the plead - ing of us sin - ners; for the one who willed to suffer for our sake is full of mer - cy, and his power is suf - fi - cient to save us.

Stichera

Stichera of the sixth Royal Hour of the Nativity - Tone 1 samohlasen

Come, O you faith - ful, let us arise by divine in - spi - ra - tion. Let us be - hold the divine humili - a - tion from on high re - vealed to us in Beth - le - hem.
 With a pure mind, let us offer vir - tues in - stead of myrrh, and rev - 'rent - ly
