1. In Christ by faith we’re ‘right-eous’ judged and given peace with God, and in our suff’rings
   we can boast, for Christ this road has trod.

2. In suff’ring, patience comes to us, with
given peace with God, and in our suff’rings
ne’er deceives, gives love of God to keep.

3. Armed with this faith and hope and love Saint perseverance deep, which leads to hope which Christ till death, Loved heaven more than gold.

4. O Father, Son, and Saint Blaise, the bishop we're judged and treasured, we're loved we're judged, Christ our Judge, is not deceived.

   Blaise, the bishop bold, proclaimed the truth of Christ till death, Loved heaven more than gold.

   Saint Blaise and all your saints for endless length of days.

Text: JMT
Melody: DUNLAP’S CREEK, Samuel McFarland, c. 1816