

The venerable Job the long-suffering

MAY 6

1. In the days of old, so we have been told,
2. Sa - tan took his wealth, came on him in stealth,
3. E - ven when his friends, for what - e - ver ends,

Lived a man of right - eous life. Job, the Scrip - tures say,
Ripped from him each earth - ly thing. Though he was dis - traught
Sought to make him state his wrong, "My Re - deem - er lives!

Walked the Lord's own way, fear - ing nei - ther grief nor strife.
From all Sa - tan wrought, he in faith - ful - ness would sing;
E - v'ry gift he gives!" Still re - mained his stead - fast song!

God it is who gives to - day, God it is who takes a - way!

Bles - sed be the Lord! His Name is a - dored! Faith - ful to him let us stay!
