Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost

1. Once a lawyer said to Jesus, “Master, tell me true;
   Of the laws of God, which is the greatest one to you?”

2. In his turn, he asked the lawyer, “Tell me, if you can,
   How can David call the Christ his son, within God’s plan?”

3. God, who called the light from darkness, shines within our heart
   That we, too, make known the glory Christ had from the start.

   Of the laws of God, which is the greatest one to you?”

Refrain

You shall love the Lord God with all your heart and soul;

You shall also love your neighbor: make this law your goal!

Loving God and loving neighbor: these two make one whole!

Melody: Christijane, proslavlajme / All the faithful come before you (traditional)
