1. The first day of the week at dawn, the women bearing myrrh rush on to find the stone all rolled away, with two men clothed in white who say: The Lord is ris'n! Christos voskres! The Lord is

2. "Why seek the Living in a tomb? He is not here! A-bandon gloom! As He foretold, he was betrayed but now, behold the place He laid!" we adore, and Paraclete, for evermore!

3. All glory, Lord, to you we pay arisen bear-ing myrrh rush on to find the stone all from the grave this day, whom with the Father

Text: JMT, based on Mark 15:43-16:9
Tune: Christos voskres! Pid neba zwid (from Tserkovni Pisni, 1926)